for readers The Data Dialogues Martyn Richard Jones, 2025-07-25 The world of data information and knowledge is not merely technical It is cultural Philosophical Even spiritual at times It offers the promise of precision in an age of confusion a kind of sacred geometry hiding within spreadsheets APIs and machine learning models At its best this world stretches the human mind challenging how we define truth how we negotiate complexity and how we reconcile seemingly irreconcilable contradictions It is the domain of paradox and possibility But if that sounds a little too poetic for a tech column it s because the real story of data today is more conflicted and more compromised Beneath the surface of the data revolution where we are supposedly unlocking insight at scale and democratising analytics lies a darker current One of opportunism one of illusion The world of data is not just full of brilliant engineers and thoughtful epistemologists it s also teeming with chancers charlatans and con artists A rogues gallery of pitch deck hustlers and clickbait futurists A carnival of snake oil salesmen dressed in TED Talk casual hawking AI powered this and cloud native that with all the depth of a bumper sticker We are in the middle of a data gold rush and like every gold rush in history it has attracted not just pioneers but profiteers The Boy's Own Annual ,1928 Stories articles interviews puzzles games jokes and other miscellaneous writings for boys The Windsor Magazine ,1920 The Glasgow Academy Glasgow (Scotland). Academy,1946 Fighters in the Blood Black' Robertson,2020-08-31 A retired RAF air marshal looks back on his career and the career of his World War II pilot father in this military memoir As this fascinating memoir unfolds moving backwards and forwards through time two parallel stories emerge one of a Second World War Spitfire ace whose flying career comes to a premature end when he s shot down and loses an eye the other of his progeny a second generation fighter pilot who eventually reaches the rank of air marshal The narrative is unique in its use of two separate and distinct voices The author s own reminiscences are interwoven with those his father recorded more than thirty years ago embellished by extracts from some 300 of his wartime letters Intensely personal and revealing controversial too at times this account is above all about people not least those with whom the author flew while serving with the USAF a tour marked by tragedy that said they proved altogether more friendly than the P 38 pilots who twice attacked his father in North Africa A daughter with dual citizenship subsequently helped him sustain his links with the US both while serving and afterwards in business The irony is that the son spent a lifetime training for the ultimate examination one that despite strictly limited preparation his father passed with flying colors To Black Robertson s eternal regret he was never able to put his own training to the test His father Robbie was awarded the DFC and retired as a flight lieutenant after five years or so He himself served for nearly thirty six years earned a Queen s Commendation an OBE and CBE and served as an ADC to HM The Queen But after reaching almost the top of the RAF tree in one important sense he retired unfulfilled his mettle was never tested under fire Anyone interested to know more about flying about the RAF about leadership about character even need look no further than this beautifully crafted immensely readable account Praise for Fighters in the Blood Offers an insightful look into the professional development of an RAF airman from Cranwell cadet to

Air Marshal the evolution of the Royal Air Force itself from the early jet era of Hunters through the demanding days of NATO versus the Warsaw Pack and the defence of British interests e g the Falklands with the Phantom and then on into the post Cold War world where the need to strengthen RAF airpower is challenged by drawdowns budgetary stringencies and often misguided Mandarins driving questionable defence policy I was struck by how beautifully the author integrated his father into the story it is at once very moving and very effective and once again works to integrate the RAF then with the RAF of the 1960s 1990s The photographs are wonderful This book is a real winner Dr Richard P Hallion Aerospace Historian Light ,1917 The Aeroplane ,1922 The Aeroplane and Astronautics ,1922 Eton College Chronicle Eton College,1902 The Argonaut ,1916 Illustrated Sporting & Dramatic News ,1910 The Cambridge Review ,1892 The Feathered World ,1930 The Listener ,1932 New Statesman Society ,1991
