Study Guide for Use with Financial Accounting Robert Libby, Patricia A. Libby, Daniel G. Short, 2003 Libby Libby Short wrote this text based on their belief that the subject of financial accounting is inherently interesting but financial accounting textbooks are often not They believe most financial accounting textbooks fail to demonstrate that accounting is an exciting field of study and one that is important to future careers in business When writing this text they considered career relevance as their guide when selecting material and the need to engage the student as their guide to style pedagogy and design Libby Libby Short is the only financial accounting text to successfully implement a real world single focus company approach in every chapter Students and instructors have responded very favorably to the use of focus companies and the real world financial statements The companies chosen are engaging and the decision making focus shows the relevance of financial accounting regardless of whether or not the student has chosen to major in accounting

Accounting Charles I Horngren, Charles T. Horngren, 2001-06 The Demo Docs System of instruction replicates the classroom experience by providing more I get it moments outside of class We've talked to tons of POA instructors and our editors have even taken the accounting course numerous times to figure out the following issue in this course that is consistent Students understand or get it right after you do a problem in class but as soon as they leave class with each passing hour their ability to do the problems again and complete their homework diminishes to the point of them either having to come to office hours to get help or they just quit and get behind in the course On top of this you can end up getting behind in the course as well in order to keep everyone on track The Demo Docs system helps to recreate the I get it moments outside of class keeping both you and the students on track
