African Vision Christine Mullen Kreamer,National Museum of African Art (U.S.),2007 Asked why he decided to collect African art Paul Tishman replied How does one fall in love Such was the passion Paul and Ruth Tishman brought to collecting The Tishmans acquired their first works of African art an ivory figure and a bronze mask from the Benin kingdom in the late 1950s Over the next 20 plus years the Tishmans built one of the great private collections of African art that included the major art traditions found throughout the continent The Tishmans desire to share the art with as many people as possible led to the 1984 sale of the collection to the Walt Disney Company who proved to be generous stewards making the collection available for exhibition and publication In the autumn of 2005 the Walt Disney World Co a subsidiary of the Walt Disney Company donated the Walt Disney Tishman African Art Collection to the National Museum of African Art Smithsonian Institution continuing the tradition of sharing the rich history of African art and culture with current and future generations

Reading Across the Disciplines Kathleen T. McWhorter,2004-04 Reading Across the Disciplines has been a popular textbook with instructors whose students do not require an abundance of skill instruction and who teach college reading through the use of readings from across the disciplines To prepare students for the expectations of higher education Kathleen McWhorter uses high interest readings from a variety of academic sources and provides concise reading skills with immediate practice for reinforcement Discipline specific reading skills offer tips for reading and learning within the particular discipline so students learn content as well as strategy
