Gender, Humiliation, and Global Security Evelin Lindner, 2010-02-26 An award winning author and transdisciplinary social scientist offers a must read guide to paradigm change for creating a socially and ecologically sustainable future. Gender Humiliation and Global Security: Dignifying Relationships from Love, Sex, and Parenthood to World Affairs aims at outlining the kind of change that needs to be made if we wish to create a less crisis prone world. This audacious work describes a vision for an alternative future showing how new approaches to love, sex, parenthood, and leadership and how they can guide us to a world where all citizens can live dignified lives. The book is organized in three parts: Part I: Gender Humiliation and Lack of Security in Times of Transition examines the nature of humiliation and how love and humiliation are influenced by large scale historical transitions such as globalization. Part II: Gender Humiliation and Lack of Security in the World Today looks at love, sex, parenthood, and leadership and how they can be dignified. Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran, S.J., 1990-06-01 In this challenging work Robert M Doran explores the basis of systematic theology in consciousness and goes on to consider the practical role of such theology in establishing and fostering communities with an authentic way of life. This way of life would counteract the distortions and deformations of humanity that are exemplified by both late capitalism and Marxism. Theology positions and interpretations today argues Doran must be stated in the categories of a theory of history. The first part of the book outlines the horizon required for such categories. The second, third, and fourth parts incrementally derive the categories expressing a theory of history in terms of the reciprocal relations among subjects, cultures, and social structures. The final part on hermeneutics presents an argument for the pertinence of what has preceded for interpreting the words and deeds of others. Doran draws extensively on the thought of Bernard Lonergan and the work develops Lonergan's methodological insights. It issues a call to personal genuineness and authenticity informed by religious, moral, intellectual, affective, and psychic conversions by interior differentiation of one's consciousness and by Christian faith on the parts of theologians who aspire to arrest effectively the course of cultural decline.
