equivalent The volume is an ode to love homage to loneliness an intense expression of mourning It can also be regarded as biographical bibliotherapy The first section Youth consists of 12 short poems in Afrikaans conveying the loneliness the author experienced during his adolescent years In 19 poems 8 in Afrikaans and 11 in English of the second section Seasons of our love the happiness of finding love and the maturation of the relationship with his wife are conveyed also the hiccups that occurred What the loss of his wife meant is evident in the 133 poems 102 in Afrikaans 31 English of the main section Without You Desolation Sonder Jou Verlatenheid This section is devoted to the poems written during the 20 months following the death of his wife He now finds himself even more desolate than in his youth Several aspects of the volume are of interest The ability of the author to be in touch with and to express the various facets of his grief in simple language in a cultural context where the expression of such emotions by men is frowned upon is noteworthy The poems also highlight the therapeutic self help value of bibliotherapy The poems of loss celebrate the mundane and relatively insignificant daily events that he shared with his wife In being in touch with his grief and in concretising the accompanying pain he attempts to find meaning in the paradox between consciousness highly developed as it is in humankind and death An answer is not evident except perhaps that humankind is destined by gravity to be absorbed by the sixth dimension of dark matter The bilingual aspect of the volume provides an additional aspect of interest

The Colonial Divide in Peruvian Narrative Misha Kokotovic, 2005 Though Peru is its principal focus the text engages with current studies of modernity at the postcolonial margins of the Western world by contributing to an understanding of the class and ethnic conflicts generated by rapid modernization in culturally heterogeneous nations Jacket
