The State and New Cinema in Contemporary India Sudha Tiwari, 2023-09-11 This book examines the relationship between the newly independent Indian state and its New Cinema movement. It looks at state formative practices articulating themselves as cultural policy. It presents an institutional history of the Film Finance Corporation (FFC) later the National Film Development Corporation (NFDC) and their patronage of the New Cinema in India from the 1960s to the 1990s, bringing into focus an extraordinary but neglected cultural moment in Indian film history and in the history of contemporary India. The chapters not only document the artistic pursuit of cinema but also the emergence of a larger field where the market, political inclinations of the Indian state and the more complex determinants of culture intersect. How the New Cinema movement faced external challenges from the industrial lobby and politicians as well as experienced deep rifts from within. It also shows how the Emergency, the Janata Party regime, economic liberalization and the opening of airwaves all left their impact on the New Cinema. The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of film studies, politics and public policy, especially cultural policy, media and culture studies and South Asian studies.

Mahasweta Devi in Defence of the Human Anuradha Ghosh, Mahmoud Al-Zayed, 2025-06-06 This book rethinks the literary and social worlds of Mahasweta Devi, the prolific and influential writer and social activist, in connection to her praxis. It brings into focus Devi's preoccupation with the human nature and life and unwritten or distorted histories that underline her poetics of translating resistance in terms of a radical alterity. The defining feature of Devi's writings is the position she adopts in defence of the human, questioning the nature of the abject in her discourse on the oppressed. Essays in this volume focus on her subversive retellings from the Mahabharata, the political aspects of translation, adaptation of her works in literature, cinema and visual arts, and comparative readings of her works by women authors from the Global South as well as the Indian diaspora. They examine her early publications, her writings for children, and the notion of aesthetics, i.e. ethics and in aesthetics as a gesture to pave forward a discourse on liberation and social justice that remains a challenge for the world. The book will be of significant interest to scholars and researchers of postcolonial and decolonial studies, critical translation and adaptation studies, comparative literature, the visual arts, myth and folklore studies, gender and sexuality studies, caste and ethnicity studies, culture studies, ethics in and aesthetics, activism studies, democratic and indigenous rights discourse, South Asian studies and Global South studies.

Chand is the endearing tale of a child kidnapped from his home and his adventures after he loses his memory in an accident. Their adventures begin in The House of Death when a holiday to the beaches of Puri is interrupted by the theft of a priceless manuscript, quickly followed by a mysterious murder. Feluda's skills are once more put to the test in Napoleon's Letter when the last known letter of the great emperor disappears and its owner is found murdered. Locating a missing person becomes the challenge in The Disappearance of Ambar Sen which turns out to be a most unusual case testing Feluda's powers of detection to the full. Crime in Kedarnath centres around a priceless pendant that a Maharaja generously bestows on Upadhyaya, a homoeopath for curing him of asthma. But when Upadhyaya renounces his worldly life to become a sanyasi and leaves for Kedarnath, he is hotly pursued by three different people. Can Feluda unravel the mystery before something disastrous occurs? The theatre becomes the scene of crime in The Acharya Murder Case but Feluda is equal to the challenge. Lalmohan Babu's joy at seeing one of his novels filmed is quickly replaced with fear as the set becomes a place of murder and theft in Murder in the Mountains but even the most cunning of villains is no match for Feluda. Gripping drama and suspense combine with humour and memorable writing to form a splendid treat for Ray's fans everywhere.
