African Capital Markets: Challenges and Opportunities Heidi Raubenheimer, 2019-11-21 Africa encompasses a wide range of market conditions from rapidly emerging economies to countries with a long history with financial markets Produced in partnership with the African Securities Exchanges Association this collection of essays includes the perspectives of authors in local markets who provide their analysis of the history current developments and future outlook for South Africa Nigeria Mauritius Ghana Zimbabwe Morocco Egypt Botswana and East Africa For prospective investors the book provides valuable insights on how changing regulation evolving financial technology and expanding investor access are transforming local markets on the continent Sustainable Markets for Sustainable Business Professor Güler Aras, 2015-04-28 Today sustainability risks and opportunities have become a global imperative and a megatrend for business The sustainability of markets is closely related to business and sustainable development and environmental issues such as climate change pollution land degradation and biodiversity loss are in part the result of market failures present in most sectors of the economy The world's markets have the potential to improve the lives of billions in developing countries reducing poverty and securing environmental quality for future generations Often they fail to capture the full value of natural resources or promote the interests of poor people Therefore an effective public policy framework is required Market governance and the relationship between the market and political authority remains a core question at the heart of the sustainability debate

Global Health Risk Framework National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Institute of Medicine, Board on Global Health, 2016-05-06 Since the 2014 Ebola outbreak many public and private sector leaders have seen a need for improved management of global public health emergencies The effects of the Ebola epidemic go well beyond the three hardest hit countries and beyond the health sector Education child protection commerce transportation and human rights have all suffered The consequences and lethality of Ebola have increased interest in coordinated global response to infectious threats many of which could disrupt global health and commerce far more than the recent outbreak In order to explore the potential for improving international management and response to outbreaks the National Academy of Medicine agreed to manage an international independent evidence based authoritative multistakeholder expert commission As part of this effort the Institute of Medicine convened four workshops in summer of 2015 to inform the commission report The presentations and discussions from the Pandemic Financing Workshop are summarized in this report Capital Markets Program Primer
