Milan Kundera's Fiction Karen von Kunes, 2019-05-20 In Milan Kundera's Fiction: A Critical Approach to Existential Betrayals Karen von Kunes traces Kundera's literary aspirations to a single episode in Czechoslovakia in the Stalinist era This moment attracted international attention when a 1950 police report was released in 2008 Reporters rushed to judgment accusing Kundera of denouncing Miroslav Dvorček to the police resulting in Dvorček's immediate arrest and sentencing to hard labor von Kunes debunks this shocking charge in a systematic way and argues that Kundera reported a suitcase not a man She ties Kundera's dominant themes of sex betrayal and political denouncement to the suitcase a fatal instrument that can lead to paradoxes and unforeseen and catastrophic coincidences for his characters Postmodern Fiction in Europe and the Americas, 2024-09-02 Poetics of Critique Andrew W. Hass, 2018-05-08 Title first published in 2003 Poetics of Critique breaks new ground in its pursuit of a formal and critical language of interdisciplinarity The founding disciplines within the humanities theology philosophy and literature are brought together here in a shared space but one that reconstitutes the very nature of each and any discipline Readings alternate between discursive analysis and imaginative revisioning texts alternate between those of the critical thinker Kant Nietzsche Gadamer and those of the novelist the poet and the playwright Bulgakov Goethe Kundera Sophocles In this movement between traditions a fusion at once organic and dynamic takes place theologian philosopher and artist become one and a pure interdisciplinarity begins to emerge into view Andrew Hass draws us into a new critical poetic sensibility by which we may explore the ultimate questions of human existence and divine reality with new vigor and sustain or indeed revitalize our deep passion for the fundamental question of truth
