An Introduction to Human Geography James M. Rubenstein, 1992

Environmental Geopolitics Shannon O'Lear, 2018-03-12 This thought provoking and clearly argued text provides a critical geopolitical lens for understanding global environment politics A subfield of political geography environmental geopolitics examines how environmental themes are used to support geopolitical arguments and physical realities of power and place Shannon O Lear considers common problematic traits of such familiar but widely misunderstood narratives about human environment relationships Mainstream themes about human environment relationships include narratives about presumed connections between human population trends and resource scarcity ways in which conflict and violence are linked to resource use or environmental degradation climate security and the application of science to solve environmental problems O Lear questions these narratives arguing that the role or meaning of the environment is rarely specified humans role in these situations tends to be considered selectively and little attention is paid to spatial dimensions of human environment relationships She shows that how we tend to think about environmental concerns often obscure value judgments and constrain more dynamic approaches to human environment relationships Environmental geopolitics demonstrates how we can question familiar assumptions to generate more just and creative approaches to our many relationships with the environment

An Introduction to Human Geography Peter Daniels, James Sidaway, Michael Bradshaw, Denis Shaw, 2012-08-07 Comprehensively revised the fourth edition of this widely used text provides a global overview of the major topics within human geography including resources population food security the economy and development geopolitics and territory culture society cities the environment and environmentalism inequality agriculture and rurality the politics of place and globalisation and global governance Coherent and substantial chapters ensure balanced treatment across the range of contemporary human geography Focusing on key geographical challenges facing the world in the early twenty first century stimulating coverage examines the diverse forces that shape economies and societies Themes issues and links are highlighted and emphasised to present a holistic view of what the editors describe as our interconnected contradictory complex conflict ridden and fantastically diverse planet All chapters are written by specialists in the field and offer original critical and engaging perspectives
