Contemporary Retail Marketing in Emerging Economies David Eshun Yawson,Fred A. Yamoah,2022-10-11 This book highlights the development of retail marketing in developing economies and presents this sector as a major area of growth and business opportunity With a special focus on supermarket chains the authors show that the advancement of technology and infrastructure means that there are now increased electronic capabilities for data collection giving retailers more opportunities to pursue micro and macro marketing strategies The authors explain the evolution of this new era of marketing and the associated impact on all stakeholders especially consumers Taking the example of Ghana which is considered a leader among African nations in the use of loyalty cards the authors are able to set a benchmark for other emerging countries especially those that are experiencing similar trends The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and foreign companies wishing to expand their knowledge of the marketing strategies employed by emerging economies in Sub Saharan Africa

Marketing in Culturally Distant Countries Giovanna Magnani,2022-06-28 The aim of this book is to offer up to date insights into the challenges for international firms represented by managing their marketing mix in distant countries especially considering the role played by cultural distance Building on the famous McCarthy s 4Ps and on the concept of cultural distance the book outlines some key challenges and opportunities for firms that manage international marketing policies about product price place and promotion in culturally distant markets At the same time the book looks at extant conceptualizations and approaches considering the evolving environmental forces which are contributing to further challenges for firms that are confronted with changing economic and social scenarios Indeed markets and societies are increasingly affected by multiculturalism and new patterns in consumers behaviors have emerged due to the proliferation of digital technologies and more recently due to several market disruptions such as the COVID 19 pandemic How do firms manage culturally distant and increasingly evolving cultural environments is a relevant topic worthy of discussion from both a theoretical perspective and a practice based approach through the analysis of real world case studies Researchers of cross cultural marketing and practitioners intending to get acquainted with the latest research on the topic would particularly benefit from this book
