

Risk of GBV for women and girls in CVA programs is mitigated

Objective

PDM surveys and other M&E tools in 2 countries are re-designed with validated indicators* that detect GBV risk to women and girls in CVA programming

Field-based M&E staff can analyze and synthesize PDM data for GBV risks and use feedback findings to improve CVA programming for women and girls

Evidence concerning the presence of GBV risks within CVA programming is produced, including:
1) List of validated indicators* that CVA actors can include in their PDM tools to better detect and mitigate GBV risk to women and girls in CVA programming; and
2) Templates of participatory group discussion guides that CVA actors can use to validate GBV risk indicators to their context

Primary Outcomes

1) Disaggregate PDM data and aggregate survey tools in 2 countries to determine:
a. If current indicators in PDM tools are sufficient to detect GBV risk in CVA programming; and
b. What other indicators* can be included to detect and monitor other aspects of GBV risk in CVA programming

2) Host consultative, participatory sessions with two-headed humanitarian M&E staff in 2 countries to:
a. Discuss gaps in current PDM tools in regards to detecting and monitoring GBV risk; and
b. Workshop lists of potential indicators* that can be used for improved monitoring of GBV risk in CVA programming

3) Conduct qualitative participatory group discussions with women and girls in 2 countries to:
a. Further explore how they experience and perceive risk of and safety from GBV while accessing CVA; and
b. Validate the lists of potential indicators* for monitoring GBV risk in CVA programming

Activities

*These will include context-specific indicators relevant for specific countries; and "global" indicators that may be broadly relevant for CVA actors across multiple contexts

Honour Based Crimes and the Law Mukaddes Gorar,2021-05-10 Honour based violence and abuse manifests itself in different forms and this book offers a comprehensive understanding of this phenomenon This book argues that the limits of honour crimes must be defined more widely so that they include conducts and behaviours that originate from the patriarchal notion of honour such as honour based oppression and breast ironing The book provides a critical analysis and synthesis of the law in England and Wales and in the international human rights sphere The relevant domestic legislation and cases are examined to reflect on whether adequate protection is provided for the victims and potential victims of honour based violence and abuse Since honour based violence is a violation of human rights the relevant international human rights law is examined to illustrate the perception of such crimes in the international arena The effectiveness of any remedy for victims of honour based violence and abuse depends on its capability to change deep rooted behaviours in communities with honour based patriarchal values This book argues that the law does not provide the effective impact required in part due to patriarchal structures and that more efforts should be dedicated to changes in education It is held that there is a need for an educational programme that is especially designed to tackle violence and promote gender equality The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Human Rights Law Criminal Law and Gender Studies

a review of global evidence on the Covid 19 pandemic Drawing on feminist theories it conceptualises the coincidence of gender based violence disasters and other aggravating factors in particular places as layered disasters Taking an intersectional approach that emphasises the connections between culture place patriarchy racism poverty settler colonialism environmental degradation and climate change the authors show the significance of gender based violence in creating vulnerability to future disasters Forefronting victim survivors experiences and understandings the book explores the important role of trauma and how those affected go about the process of survival and recovery Understanding disasters as layered casts light on why tackling gender based violence must be a key priority in disaster planning management and recovery The book concludes by exploring critiques of existing formal responses which often ignore or underplay gender based violence The book will be of interest to all those interested in understanding the causes and impacts of disasters as well as scholars and researchers of gender and gender based violence Bibliothekswissenschaft - quo vadis? / Library Science - quo vadis ? Petra Hauke, 2011-07-13 Changes in information structures and requirements demand that libraries and library science redefine their positions They must face new challenges and present definite perspectives in the form of research goals and pilot schemes 31 original contributions by distinguished German American Scandinavian Dutch and Swiss authors shed light on the following subjects Library science between tradition self conception and public perception Library science in the age of digital media Library science in the service of society Library science in the service of scientific information and communication Library science in the service of practical librarianship Library science in teaching studying and profession Among the issues dealt with are the following electronic publishing eLearning and information ethics the Open Access debate conveying information competence to not only universities reciprocity between the economy politics and libraries and finally library science training in view of librarianship in practice The contributions are written in either German or English depending on the author s origins The appendix contains abstracts in English as well as an extensive bilingual index of authors Bibliothekswissenschaft quo vadis Addresses librarians information scientists information documentalists academics and students of all disciplines all who create collect bundle process mediate or prepare for use professional information Digitization in Controlling Andre Große Kamphake, 2020-01-02 Andre Große Kamphake deals with the digitization in controlling and focuses in this context on the analysis of automated forecasting processes within a chemical company He aims at outlining to what extent and how accurate forecasting processes can be automated in the age of digitization and big data Therefore the forecast of the working capital is put at the center since it plays a leading role for the cash collection process Based on data from 2015 to 2018 two different forecasting models are combined to optimally predict the different components contained in the working capital The author manages to prove that both a trained forecasting algorithm achieves a prediction accuracy of 92.49 % and statistical methods in machine learning lead to a significant increase in forecasts compared to naive forecasting models ICT for Intelligent Systems Jyoti
