Sensory Arts and Design Ian Heywood, 2017-01-26 Artists designers and researchers are increasingly seeking new ways to understand and explore the creative and practical significance of the senses This ground breaking book brings art and design into the field of sensory studies providing a clear introduction to the field and outlining important developments and new directions A compelling exploration of both theory and practice Sensory Arts and Design brings together a wide variety of examples from contemporary art and design which share a sensory dimension in their development or user experience Divided into three parts the book examines the design applications of new technology with sensing capacities the role of the senses in creating new imaginative environments and the significance of the senses within different cultural practices The thirteen chapters cover a highly diverse range of issues from the urban environment architecture and soundscapes to gustatory art multisensory perception in painting music and drawing and the relationship between vision and smell Initiated by Insight a research group at Lancaster Institute for the Contemporary Arts widely recognised as a center of research excellence the project brings together a team of experts from Britain Europe and North America This timely book is destined to make a significant contribution to the scholarly development of this emerging field An important read for students and scholars in sensory studies design art and visual culture

Craft is Political D Wood, 2021-04-22 Throughout the 21st century various craft practices have drawn the attention of academics and the general public in the West In Craft is Political D Wood has gathered a collection of essays to argue that this attention is a direct response to and critique of the particular economic social and technological contexts in which we live Just as Ruskin and Morris viewed craft and its ethos in the 1800s as a kind of political opposition to the Industrial Revolution Wood and her authors contend that current craft activities are politically saturated when perspectives from the Global South Indigenous ideology and even Western government policy are examined Craft is Political argues that a holistic perspective on craft in light of colonialism post colonialism critical race theory and globalisation is overdue A great diversity of case studies is included from craft and design in Turkey and craft markets in New Zealand to Indigenous practitioners in Taiwan and Finnish craft education Craft is Political brings together authors from a variety of disciplines and nations to consider politicised craft

Elisabeth Lutyens and Edward Clark Annika Forkert, 2023-10-19 The composer Elisabeth Lutyens and her second husband the conductor and music programmer Edward Clark were innovators in composition conducting programming teaching and music administration in Britain between 1918 and 1983 Controversial in their professional and personal views and tastes their achievements obscured by layers of anecdote and some self inflicted reputational harm this book critically re assesses their roles as cornerstones of structures and developments in British music that we now take for granted Key to understanding their central roles in orchestrating musical progress is the ambiguous role of influence in their work and the intimate connections between British and European music This study critically charts their professional lives in music taking a holistic approach to contextualise Lutyens and Clark s multifaceted work in music historically music analytically and culturally
