Calgary Economics Calgary Economic Development:

Innovating in Urban Economies David A. Wolfe, 2014-01-01 In a globalizing knowledge based economy innovation and creative capacity lead to economic prosperity Starting in 2006 the Innovation Systems Research Network began a six year long study on how city regions in Canada were surviving and thriving in a globalized world That study resulted in the Innovation Creativity and Governance in Canadian City Regions series which examines the impact of innovation talent and institutions on sixteen city regions across Canada This volume explores how the social dynamics that influence innovation and knowledge flows in Canadian city regions contribute to transformation and long term growth With case studies examining cities of all sizes from Toronto to Moncton Innovating in Urban Economies analyzes the impact of size location and the regional economy on innovation and knowledge in Canada s cities

Governing Urban Economies Neil Bradford, Allison Bramwell, 2014-04-30 Today more than ever cities matter to the economic and social well being of the vast majority of Canadians Canada s urban centers are simultaneously the engines of the national economy and the places where the risks of social exclusion are most concentrated making innovative and inclusive urban governance an urgent national priority Governing Urban Economies is the first detailed scholarly examination of relations among governmental and community based actors in Canadian city regions Comparing patterns of municipal community relations and federal provincial interactions across city regions this volume tracks the ways in which urban coalitions tackle complex economic and social challenges Featuring an inter disciplinary group of established and up and coming scholars this collection breaks new ground in the Canadian urban politics literature and will appeal to urbanists working in a range of national contexts
