G. Berkley, 2013 Studies the collective works of one of the greatest writers of Northern Sudanese culture novelist and writer Tayeb Salih After Orientalism, 2016-08-09 How does Edward Said's Orientalism speak to us today What relevance did and does it have politically and intellectually How and in what modes does Orientalism engage with new intersecting fields of inquiry At the occasion of the twenty fifth anniversary of Orientalism these questions shape the essays collected in the present volume The after of the title does not only guide the contributions in a look on past discussions but specifically points at future research as well Orientalism's critical entanglements are thus connected to productive looks these productive looks make us read differently but only after we recognize our struggle with the dominant notions that we live by that divide and unite us More specifically this volume addresses three fields of research enabling productive looks visual culture the body sexuality and the performative and national identities modernity and gender All articles weaving delicate new analytical and theoretical textures maintain vital links with at least two of the fields mentioned Orientalism's role as a cultural catalyst is gauged in the analysis of materials such as Iranian film 16th and 17th century Venetian representations of the Turk Barthes take on Japanese culture modern Arab travel narratives Palestinian popular culture photography on and of the Maghreb Japanese queer and gay culture the 19th century Illustrated London News theories on migration and exile postcolonial cinema and Hanan al Shaykh's and Mai Ghossoub's writing on civil war in Lebanon Authors include Karina Eileraas Belgin Turan zkaya Joshua Paul Dale John Potvin Mark McLelland Tina Sherwell Nasrin Rahimieh Stephen Morton Anastasia Vallasopoulos Suha Kudsieh and Kate McInturff

Symbolism 14 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2014-12-12 Symbolic representation is a crucial subject for and a potent heuristic instrument of diaspora studies This special focus inquires into the forms and functions of symbols of diaspora both in aesthetic practice and in critical discourse analyzing and theorizing symbols from Shakespeare to Bollywood as well as in critical writings of theorists of diaspora What kinds of symbols and symbolic practices contributors ask are germane to the representation both emic and etic of diasporics and diasporas How are specific symbols and symbolic practices analyzed across the academic fields contributing to diaspora studies Which symbols and symbolic practices inform the academic study of diasporas sometimes unconsciously or without being remarked on To study these phenomena is to engage in a dialogue that aims at refining the theoretical and methodological vocabulary and practice of truly transdisciplinary diaspora studies while attending to the imperative of specificity that inheres in this emerging field The volume collects a range of analyses from social anthropology history and ethnography to literary and film studies all combining readings of individual symbolic practices with meta-theoretical reflections

Tayeb Salih's Season of migration to the North Nabil Ibrahim Matar, 1984

The Wedding of Zein Tayeb Salih, 2011-04-20 The Wedding of Zein unfolds in the same village on the upper Nile where Tayeb Salih's tragic masterpiece Season of Migration to the North is set Here however the story that emerges through the overlapping sometimes contradictory voices of the villagers is comic Zein is the village idiot and everyone in the village is dumbfounded when the news goes around that he will be getting married Zein the freak Zein who burst into laughter the moment he was born and has kept women and children laughing ever since Zein who lost all his teeth at six and whose face is completely hairless Zein married at last Zein's particular role in the life of the village has been the peculiar one of falling in love again and again with girls who promptly marry another man It would be unheard of for him to get married himself In Tayeb Salih s wonderfully agile telling the story of how this miracle came to be is one that engages the tensions that exist in the village or indeed in any community tensions between the devout and the profane the poor and the propertied the modern and the traditional In the end however Zein s ridiculous good luck augurs an ultimate reconciliation opening a prospect of a world made whole Salih s classic novella appears here with two of his finest short stories The Doum Tree of Wad Hamid and A Handful of Dates

Embracing the Beat of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Tayeb Salih

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast conversation, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the written word often disappear into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Tayeb Salih a charming literary value brimming with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching analysis, we can examine the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing type, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
