Critical Conversations in African Philosophy Alena Rettová, Benedetta Lanfranchi, Miriam Pahl, 2021-11-29 In this edited collection contributors examine key themes sources and methods in contemporary African Philosophy building on a wide ranging understanding of what constitutes African philosophy and drawing from a variety of both oral and written texts of different genres Part one of the volume examines how African philosophy has reacted to burning issues ranging from contemporary ethical questions on how to integrate technological advancements into human life to one of philosophy's prime endeavours which is establishing the conditions of knowledge to eternal ontological and existential questions on the nature of being time memory and death Part two reflects on the re definition of philosophy from an African vantage point and African philosophy's thrust to create its own canon archive and resources to study African concepts artefacts practices and texts from the perspective of intellectual history The volume aims to make a contribution to the academic debate on African philosophy and philosophy more broadly challenging orthodox definitions and genres in favour of a broadening of the discipline's self understanding and locales This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African philosophy and comparative philosophy

Transgression in Swahili Narrative Fiction and its Reception Rémi Armand Tchokothe, 2014 This book remarkably analyses the development of recent Swahili prose narrative The main thesis is that since the 90s Swahili literature has developed to go beyond aspects that had hitherto conditioned literature in African languages local popular and didactic and has opened itself to global sophisticated and subversive perspectives Remi Tchokothe uses the leitmotif of transgression as the unifying thread to render an account of this evolution of the Swahili narrative fiction towards the disruption of narrative linearity an increase in intertextual references an awareness of globalisation in political analysis and a shift to magical realism The finishing touch to the analysis is a meticulously conducted reception survey which highlights editorial ambiguities that go with the transgressive turn Xavier Garnier U Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3 Series Contributions to Research on Africa Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 56

Gender Relations and Women's Images in the Media Dorothy A. S. Mbilinyi, Cuthbert K. Omari, 1996 Fundamental issues are addressed with a view to forging a society without hierarchy of gender in which men would be liberated from the status quo of their hierarchy as well as women A major premise of the book is that if gender relations are socially and historically constructed then by the same token they can be de constructed The focus is on gendered images of women in the mass media who themselves need sensitising against the subjugation of the female gender Eleven papers are included covering gender relations and women's images in social structures and gender relations school text books radio programmes advertisements newspaper reporting and Kiswahili fiction poetry and taarab songs

The Swahili Novel Xavier Garnier, 2013 WINNER 2015 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Award An overview of the Swahili novel its place in a globalized world and a reflection on the status and dynamism of Kafka's concept of minor literature For more than fifty years a dynamic modern literature has been developing in the Kiswahili language The political weight that Kiswahili carries as the emerging national and pan national language of many East African countries places this literature much of it in the form of novels at the centre of heated literary debates on the social function of literature in the context of rapid global social change Garnier provides new insights into the Swahili novel form with all its vibrancy and capacity for experimentation Its obsession with social issues relates to larger all pervasive political debates running through East Africa in its press its streets its public and private places The novels both record and provoke these debates Based on the study of more than 175 Swahili novels by almost 100 authors Garnier brings to light a body of work much neglected by African literary critics but which looks outwards to the wider world Xavier Garnier teaches African Literature at the Universit Paris 3 Sorbonne Nouvelle and is former director of the Centre d Etudes des Nouveaux Espaces Litt raires Universit Paris 13
