

C963 American Politics and the U.S. Constitution Note-Taking Guide

Section 3: Political Participation

What is this Section about? Section 3 is about how people participate in the political process of the United States. This section covers campaigns and elections, campaign finance, interest groups, voter-turnout rates, how people register to vote, how people decide which candidates to vote for, and the important constitutional amendments and federal legislation that expanded and protected the right to vote.

What do I need to know by the end of Section 3?

- What are the differences between congressional and presidential elections, including the nomination process and the general election?
- What are the different types of interest groups, and how do they work to shape elections and public policy?
- How does voting operate in the U.S., including differences in voter registration across the states, and voting laws & amendments that have impacted both registration and turnout?

Note: Pay close attention to the Learning Objectives. The questions on the objective assessment are designed and chosen to align with the learning objectives of this course.
