

AP® English Language & Composition

Course Description

AP English Language and Composition engages students in reading, analyzing, and evaluating a variety of texts of social, historical, and contemporary significance and in assessing and writing well-developed responses that use strong evidence to justify their claims. Students study rhetorically effective texts of the American literary tradition, as well as contemporary and global texts, to understand and evaluate the rhetorical strategies of writing. In addition, writing the college-level essays assesses the AP English Language student's ability to analyze, evaluate, and defend their own critical interpretations.
