WARNING: Before the start of each activity that you can work on either on the night reading the book The Kane Chronicles: The Red Pyramid or on the day after you have finished it.

Egyptian Gods & Goddesses
There are many Egyptian gods and goddesses mentioned in this book. Your task is to identify all those you can. You must include the name of the character, at least one of the symbols they're important to the story, and a colored picture (including the character).

Herodotus
Throughout the story there were many Herodotus quotes. Your task is to identify the Herodotus quote during the following: what were Herodotus' observations about Egypt? Herodotus' observations in relation to the story, and write a commentary of why that was great (even the Herodotus appearance in the story).

Creating a Pyramid
Herodotus wrote an important aspect of the Egyptian culture. Your task is to create a three-dimensional pyramid that would be important to the story. On the outside of the pyramid, include the name, main character, main goddess, and location. On the inside of the pyramid, include the secrets of the story. For example, one secret could be that Anubis was really the Egyptian god Ra.

The Red Pyramid Story Collage
Create a collage about the events from the story. On the back of the collage, write why you chose the pictures that you did.

Animals and Ancient Egypt
Animals had a special part of ancient Egyptian culture. There are many animals that showed up in the story. Your task is to identify the animals that appear in the book. On the back of animals or plants from the story, you must include their name, animal description, importance to the story, and a colored drawing of each.

Game Board
Write up a board game about the story or a single piece of the story or character from the story. Your game must contain at least five events that happened in the story. Your game board must include the main events of the story.
