Cultural Representations of the Second Wife Jo Parnell,2023-12-11 Cultural Representation of the Second Wife Literature Stage and Screen is a multifaceted interdisciplinary cross cultural work that provides insights into the realities of second wives the world over This book allows the reader a three dimensional view of the second wife experience It asks What does it mean and what does it feel like to be a second wife in a polygamous union or in a monogamous partnership Is there a difference Together the writers in this book cleverly create an in depth study of the subject through the productions referred to in the title to offer a different approach to the popularly held views of the second wife The book addresses the intricacies customs practices and lifestyles of the various Eastern and Western cultures and demonstrates the abilities of the Humanities to connect and interrelate with other disciplines as well as with the reader s own world

Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart David Whittaker,Mpalive-Hangson Msiska,2007-11-08 Offering an insight into African culture that had not been portrayed before Things Fall Apart is the tragic story of an individual set in the wider context of colonialism as well as a powerful and complex political statement of cross cultural encounters This guide offers an accessible introduction to the text and contexts of Things Fall Apart surveying the many interpretations of the text from publication to the present and the critical material that surrounds it

Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu,Iniobong I. Uko,2004 Chinua Achebe s influence on contemporary African literature is as much in evidence in his art of the novel as his theory of African literature and literary criticism ISINKA Igbo term for artistic purpose establishes Achebe s legacy as a literary theorist and critic In these essays scholars from around the globe assess and establish how much Achebe s extra fictional ideas about African literature and literature in general are justified in his own creative works

Essays in Migratory Aesthetics Sam Durrant,Catherine M. Lord,2007 This volume addresses the impact of human movement on the aesthetic practices that make up the fabric of culture The essays explore the ways in which cultural activities ranging from the habitual gestures of the body to the production of specific artworks register the impact of migration from the forced transportation of slaves to the New World and of Jews to the death camps to the economic migration of peoples between the West and its erstwhile colonies from the internal and external exile of Palestinians to the free movement of cosmopolitan intellectuals Rather than focusing exclusively on art produced by those identified as migrant subjects this collection opens up the question of how aesthetics itself migrates transforming not only its own practices and traditions but also the very nature of our being in the world as subjects producing as well as produced by the cultures in which we live The transformative potential of cultures on the move is both affirmed and critiqued throughout the collection as part of an exploration of the ways in which globalisation implicates us ever more tightly in the unequal relations of production that characterise late modernity This collection brings academic scholars from a variety of disciplines into conversation with practising visual and

Language as an Anti-Colonial Tool. A Conceptual Peep into Chinua Achebe's "English and the African Writer" and Ngugi Wa Thiogo's "The Language of African Literature" Ismail Ibrahim Ibrahim, 2021-04-22 Essay from the year 2020 in the subject Literature Africa grade A language English abstract This essay deals with language as an Anti Colonial tool in Chinua Achebe s English and the African Writer and Ngugi Wa Thiogo s The Language of African Literature The most powerful weapon through which the occident the coloniser grabs the orient the colonised is the language Language is not just a means of communication but also the spirit and a carrier of cultural experience and cosmology of the people It is an age long tradition and one of the ways of the expansionists in which they impose their language as well as other cultural elements on the conquered people However the nexus between language and identity construction is undeniable What is Orientation in Global Thinking? Katrin Flikschuh, 2017-10-05 Uses Kant s philosophical method to show how global justice theories depend on acknowledgement of the intelligibility of contextually alien thought The Literary Griot, 1994

Saving Power Michael Doe, 2011-11-30 In this timely work Michael Doe shows the rightful position of mission as the lifeblood of the Church and shows how our understanding of it as Christians is crucial for what we present to the wider world He considers the Anglican roots within the nature of mission current tensions in the Church and how they relate to social engagement the history of mission and Church structures An underlying theme of this book is power how power has been exercised in God s Church and how it should be used in the Anglican Communion today He questions how that relates to the way we understand power in the mission of God and especially in what we see in Jesus Christ MLA International
