From the above discussion, some features of comparative public administration can be identified. They are –

1. This is a relatively new topic in public administration.
2. Comparative public administration has a large number of contradictory discussions. Researchers from different disciplines may have come here, but there is a lot of discussion on the subject.
3. The application of the scientific method in the discussion of comparative public administration is particularly noteworthy.
4. Since the Ford Foundation of the United States contributed financially to its development, U.S. researchers and administration experts dominated this particular discipline.
5. Comparative public administration has been interested in theory building and moving towards the administrative problems of the developing state and its possible solutions.
6. Apart from these, it makes students, teachers, researchers, administrators, and experts aware of the public administration of other states. In addition, another state can be established by bringing administrative institutions and administrative procedures from other states and this is possible only through comparative public administration.

Significance of Comparative Public Administration

Compared to other themes in the modern discussion of public administration, comparative public administration is unquestionably one of the most discussed and enriched topics. While at the same time, comparative public administration has established itself as an important and significant component of both intellectual discourse and practical application.

An important contribution to the development of the theory is the comparative assessment of the administrative structure and functions of different political systems. Many people believe that if the theoretical discussion is carried further through this type of discussion, the subject will be transformed into a scientific
