Introductory Psychology is taught by using integrative themes to develop the connections among different areas of psychological research. And now with this Fourth Edition Weiten again raises the bar a notch higher for competitors. Not only has he continued to refine and improve his fine text but Weiten has developed an exciting multimedia CD ROM for the course giving instructors a new engaging way to teach and students an interactive way to learn. Now Weiten not only explains the interdependent links between research and applications but he gives students a fascinating way to explore psychological concepts through experiments and activities included on the PsycTrek CD ROM. Using integrative themes to emphasize connections among different areas of research in psychology Weiten challenges students to grapple with the big issues and tough questions while mastering the basic concepts of psychology. Throughout the Fourth Edition Weiten emphasizes the unity in psychology's intellectual heritage, the themes as well as psychology's immense diversity, the variations. Long after your students have completed their final examinations they will retain a genuine understanding of the basic ideas about psychology and behavior.

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1999 The Practical Student Carl Wahlstrom, Brian K. Williams, 1999. This book speaks directly to the needs and issues of proprietary vocational technical and career and certificate program students. The authors show students that by mastering the academic and personal skills needed to succeed in school such as time and money management, memorization and how to deal with stress that they are learning the skills needed for success in their careers, finances, relationships, health and other aspects of life.

Code Practice and Remedies Bancroft-Whitney Company, 1928 Sociopedagogics 2000 J. W. M. Pretorius, 1998. This comprehensive publication examines the family, school and society from a sociopedagogical perspective. Some of the topics that are discussed in detail are the family, its dynamics, functions and types, the vulnerability of the modern family, educational errors and relationship disturbances.
