June Chu has always been the just good enough girl: Good enough to line the shelves with third-place trophies and steal secret kisses from her AP Bio partner Rhys. But not good enough to meet her mother's unrelenting expectations or get Rhys to commit. While June's mother insists she follow in her perfect sister's footsteps and get a full-ride violin scholarship, June doesn't see the point in trying too hard if she's destined to fall short anyway. Instead, she focuses her efforts on making her relationship with Rhys official. But after her methodically planned, tipsily executed scheme explodes on the level of a nuclear disaster, she flings herself into a new relationship with a guy who's not allergic to the word girlfriend. As the line between sex and love blurs, and pressure to map out her entire future threatens to burst, June will have to decide on whose terms she's going to live her life, even if it means fraying her relationship with her mother beyond repair.
