

KVH IP VPN

Cost effective network of choice for optimum productivity for multi site enterprises

Service Overview

Enterprises today need a network that offers seamless and swift connectivity across geographically diverse businesses while providing capabilities to improve business application performance. Coupled with ever evolving unified communications and cloud strategies, the need for a cost effective, flexible network with guaranteed SLAs is critical. KVH, with its next generation IP VPN network, is uniquely positioned to address these requirements with fully secure, flexible, and latency sensitive services.

KVH IP VPN differs from offerings by other service providers by being built on KVH's low latency, fully redundant backbone infrastructure, which is custom designed for trading applications. As the network of choice for major financial industry players, this network infrastructure offers all enterprises the highest standards in network resiliency and performance.

KVH's strength lies in interconnecting key business and financial cities in Asia to provide gateways into and throughout this economically growing region for Asian and multinational customers. KVH also links Asia with a broad range of key financial hubs in Europe by utilizing its partnership with Colt.

These capabilities allow customers to securely manage their mission critical data over high-speed, highly reliable Ethernet services. With KVH IP VPN services, customers are assured of meeting global compliance regulations and can select from a range of protection options to minimize downtime and risk of network failures.

To support multinational customers, KVH offers 24 x 7 bilingual Service Desk support in English and Japanese. With smooth communication throughout all interactions with the Operations, Sales, Service Desk, and Management Teams, network solutions are developed and implemented to customers' exact specifications, and issues that arise are resolved as efficiently as possible.

Low Latency Network

Leverages KVH ultra low latency backbone between Tokyo, Osaka, Hong Kong, Singapore, Seoul, Sydney and Chicago for low latency connectivity throughout Asia, Europe, and USA.

High Reliability and Resiliency

Range of resiliency options from which the optimum solution for your business needs can be chosen.

End-to-end Managed Network

Proactively managed network with Managed CPE options, including routers, switches and firewalls.

Outstanding Customer Service

Dedicated, multilingual teams of engineers with expert knowledge in tandem with our industry leading 24x7 monitoring systems ensure customers can focus on their core business areas.

Guaranteed Quality of Service

Strongly protected SLAs for time to repair (TTR), availability, packet loss, latency, jitter, and service delivery.
