officer told me that the young man his informant had heard the only valuable lesson how to be in the world and had recorded it on the sly If I wrote about it and nobody did anything it would prove that the young man was telling the truth 4 The police officer read me the transcript he d made They d met in a room not far from where we were randomly seated not in a horseshoe like they do at ritual initiations The old Italian began speaking without even introducing himself

Criminality and Power in the Postcolonial City Maria Ridda,2022-11-21 This book investigates the literary imaginings of the postcolonial city through the lens of crime in texts set in Naples and Mumbai from the 1990s to the present Employing the analogy of a black hole it posits the discourse on criminality as a way to investigate the contemporary spatial manifestations of coloniality and global capitalist urbanity Despite their different histories Mumbai and Naples have remarkable similarities Both are port cities gateways to their countries and regional trade networks and both are marked by extreme wealth and poverty They are also the sites and symbolic battlegrounds for a wider struggle in which the North exploits the South and the South fights back As one of the characters of the novel The Neapolitan Book of the Dead puts it a narrativisation of the underworld allows for a discovery of a different city from its forgotten corners Crime provides a means to understand the relationship between space and society culture in a number of cities across the Global South by tracing a narrative of postcolonial urbanity that exposes the connections between exploitation and the ongoing coloniality of power

Gwyn Bevan,2023-10-23 If every system is perfectly designed to get the results it gets what is wrong with the design of the systems that govern Britain And how have they resulted in failures in housing privatisation outsourcing education and healthcare In How Did Britain Come to This Gwyn Bevan examines a century of varieties of systemic failures in the British state The book begins and ends by showing how systems of governance explain scandals in NHS hospitals and the failures and successes of the UK and Germany in responding to Covid 19 before and after vaccines became available The book compares geographical fault lines and inequalities in Britain with those that have developed in other European countries and argues that the causes of Britain s entrenched inequalities are consequences of shifts in systems of governance over the past century Clement Attlee s postwar government aimed to remedy the failings of the prewar minimal state while Margaret Thatcher s governments in the 1980s in turn sought to remedy the failings of Attlee s planned state by developing the marketised state which morphed into the financialised state we see today This analysis highlights the urgent need for a new political settlement of an enabling state that tackles current systemic weaknesses from market failures and over centralisation This book offers an accessible analytic account of government failures of the past century and is essential reading for anyone who wants to make an informed contribution to what an innovative capable state might look like in a post pandemic world Saviano V.
