Rules G. Letterman, 2001-11-29 In the law of contracts the term internationalization has come to mean the removal of transactions from any nation's legal standards system of dispute resolution or commercial practices The trend has picked up speed in recent years to the point where many business people want their contracts internationalized as a matter of course This convenient volume contains the heart of the matter It focuses on the essential elements that make a contract international in the new sense and the interrelationships between those elements rather than on the constantly changing mass of attendant detail To clarify such an understanding of internationalization the author describes and analyzes various aspects of international contract law regimes including The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods CISG The UNIDROIT Principles CISG and UNIDROIT Jurisprudence The lex mercatoria and other international regional and national contract law principles A final chapter deals exclusively with practical applications when to and when not to internationalize a contract how to plan for effectiveness and the best advantage and selecting appropriate and consistent devices for internationalization
