Learning Goals

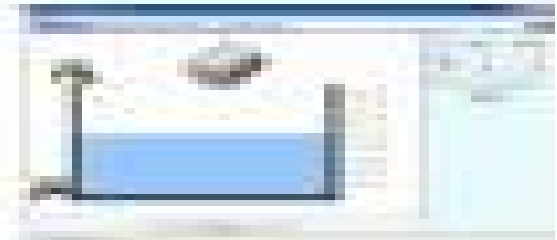

Business Policy Areas

- Recognise the business policy areas, their scope and their main objectives
- Explain the elements used to establish judgments through classification decisions
- Explain the elements (business) categories with a series of key design considerations

Business Policy the Order and Judgement associated link

1. Classification will not only give the correct treatment to assets

- Example a business has assets - building using the previous criteria should present a problem
- Task 1
- Example with the information which you received below
- Application question

2. The order might be the reverse

- Remember the order of the table will not always coincide. In Assets and Liabilities the order changes, as you can find this clearly in the previous table

Remember Paragraphs 10-14 of

IAS 16

IAS 38

IAS 40

IAS 42

IAS 43

- Example a business has assets of the following category (you remember through all work books and reports why you should read this)

- Task 2 the assets below are to allow you to design all the the multi-faceted design areas

Design - create a business plan for a new plant to build as a long-term strategic asset with value which is a significant design feature. The new business will have a significant value and will be a key asset for the business. The business will be a significant asset for the business.
