Port State Control and Jurisdiction: Evolution of the Port State Regime George Kasoulides, 1993-09-17

The 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea which had been ratified by 54 states by the end of 1992 consolidates a number of novel provisions one of which is port state enforcement for violations outside a state's jurisdiction. Port state control as such is a very old concept. It is based on the rule of international law according to which a state exercises full jurisdictional powers within its internal waters and has the right to deny access to such waters. The 1982 Convention expands this jurisdiction and provides the port state with enforcement powers with respect to violations outside its national jurisdiction.
