Motion Picture Copyrights & Renewals, 1950-1959 David Pierce, 1989 This annotated reference provides information on the copyright status of over 20 000 features short films television programs and documentaries The United States copyright system allows a film to fall into the public domain if a renewal is not filed in the twenty eighth year after its release Such public domain films may be used by anyone for free but finding out which films are or are not still under copyright can be expensive and tedious This guide alleviates that expense and drudgery by including all motion pictures registered for copyright in the 1950s as well as 500 that were received after 1959 The book also includes an overview of the copyright system and sample certificates All renewals of copyrights are noted allowing readers to clearly see which items are or are not in the public domain

Popular Photography, 1994 Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda, 1998 With a slender design and appealing art Cullinan and Galda present a thought provoking discussion on how children can read to respond read to learn and read to enjoy This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children s books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues Numerous teaching ideas many of which are contributed by classroom teachers provide practical applications This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature based curriculum
