

A photograph of a building at night. The building has a large, brightly lit garage door in the center. The light from the garage door illuminates the surrounding area, including a driveway and a small bush on the left. The sky is dark, and the overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the garage door.

Raymond Carver, Robert Altman Claire Fabre, Serge Chauvin, 1999 Neuf nouvelles et un poème de Raymond Carver 1938 1988 qui ont inspiré Robert Altman pour son film Short Cuts ont été rassemblées en un nouveau recueil On y entrevoit des destins banales qui basculent dans la crise ou s'en approchent dangereusement L'étrange se glisse alors dans le familier les traits cessent de se ressembler les signes de fonctionner La menace diffuse qui se propage dans les récits inquiète galement l'écriture et requiert un lecteur attentif aux moindres débordements de la langue Avec son film Robert Altman ménage des raccourcis dans l'œuvre de Carver dont il dissèque les personnages pour les recomposer prélevant des fragments d'existence apparemment aléatoires selon une esthétique qui oscille entre unité et discontinuité ne rassemblant les traits que pour souligner entre eux les lignes de scission marrant pathos et dérision stéréotype et lucidité Literary Afterlife of Raymond Carver with how to live in an ordinary domesticated continent Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 explores the role of place in negotiating reinforcing and subverting articulations of hegemonic masculinity in the work of four American writers from the latter part of the 20th century John Cheever John Updike Raymond Carver and Richard Ford The book argues that American fiction by white male writers between the 1950s and the present day is compelled by the troubled and troubling relationship between masculinity and place This relationship is deeply embedded in how ideals of masculinity are predicated upon the experience of the physical world and how the symbolic logic of masculinity is continually subverted by alternative conceptions of dwelling and ecological consciousness
