

2. What is Cloud:

When being used in a business context, the term "cloud" refers to a network of remote servers hosted on the Internet that are used to store, manage, and provide access to computer resources and data. The term "cloud" is used to describe the Internet-based computing services that are provided by a third party. These services are typically used to store and manage data, and to provide access to applications and services. The term "cloud" is also used to describe the network of servers that are used to provide these services.
