The Harlem Renaissance Lynn Domina,2014-11-25 A perfect guide for use in high school classes this book explores the fascinating literature of the Harlem Renaissance reviewing classic works in the context of the history society and culture of its time The Harlem Renaissance is one of the most interesting eras in African American literature as well as a highly regarded period in our country s literary history The works produced during this span reflect a turbulent social climate in America a time fraught with both opportunities and injustices for minorities In this enlightening guide author and educator Lynn Domina examines the literature of the Harlem Renaissance along with the cultural and societal factors influencing its writers This compelling book illuminates the cultural conditions affecting the lives of African Americans everywhere addressing topics such as prohibition race riots racism interracial marriage sharecropping and lynching Each chapter includes historical background on both the literary work and the author and explores several themes through historical document excerpts and thoughtful analysis to illustrate how literature responded to the surrounding social circumstances Chapters conclude with a discussion of why and how the literary work remains relevant today

Generations; an Introduction to Drama Milly S. Barranger, Daniel Boone Dodson, 1971 The seven plays in this anthology are drawn from the whole span of Western drama and in each a version of the generational conflict is inherent in the theme and central action of the play In each play youth is attempting to free itself from the restrictions imposed upon it by the authority of the prevailing power structure parental political or social

Using Informational Text to Teach A Raisin in the Sun Audrey Fisch, Susan Chenelle, 2016-02-12 The Common Core State Standards mean major changes for language arts teachers particularly the emphasis on informational text How do we shift attention toward informational texts without taking away from the teaching of literature The key is informational texts deeply connected to the literary texts you are teaching Preparing informational texts for classroom use however requires time and effort Using Informational Text to Teach Literature is designed to help In this second volume the first volume is on To Kill a Mockingbird we offer informational texts connected to Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun Readings range in genre commencement address historical and cultural analysis government report socioeconomic research study and Supreme Court decision and topic housing discrimination past and present abortion the racial and cultural politics of hair socioeconomic mobility and inequality the violence associated with housing desegregation and the struggle against the legacy of systemic racism Each informational text is part of a student friendly unit with reading strategies and vocabulary writing and discussion activities Teachers need to incorporate nonfiction in ways that enhance their teaching of literature The Using Informational Text to Teach Literature series is an invaluable supportive tool
