Remember that an artist's drawing does not always have a single, unified focus and that the viewer can see more than one thing.

PROBLEM 1.2

Domestic Interior, Women

Make a drawing in which you combine aspects of figures in motion with the interior space of your subject. In other words, you can take a scene from a domestic interior.

Use the drawing in Figure 1.11 as a model for your composition. Consider the use of overlapping and the sense of depth. Think about the way the figures are positioned and how they relate to the space. Consider the way the lines are used to create a sense of movement. Remember that the drawing is not just a picture of the scene.

Domestic Interior

Make a photograph composed of two overlapping images or scenes in a domestic space. You can use an example of the concept of space in the figure drawing (see Figure 1.11), or which the other scene continues into the foreground. You can use a window, a doorway, or a mirror to create a sense of depth and movement.
