Emirates Airline: Connecting the Unconnected Juan Alcácer, John Clayton, 2014 Air Transport in the 21st Century
John F. O'Connell, George Williams, 2016-12-05 Airlines are buffeted by fluctuating political and economic landscapes ever changing competition technology developments globalization increasing deregulation and evolving customer requirements As a consequence all sectors of the air transport industry are in a constant state of flux The principle aim of this book is to review current trends in the airline industry and its related suppliers thereby providing an insight into the forces that are changing its dynamics The factors that are reshaping the structure of the industry are examined with a view to identifying the key issues whose impact will be critical in the future The book features two very distinct sections The first contains short contributions from industry executives at CEO VP level from airlines aircraft engine manufacturers safety and navigational provider organisations who have set out their take of where the airline industry is heading This commercial input sets the scene for the book and provides the bridge to the second section which is composed of 18 chapters written by distinguished academic authors Each chapter presents a valuable insight into a specific area of the air transport industry including airlines airports cargo deregulation the environment navigation strategy information technology security and tourism The shared objective of the authors is to describe and explain the core competencies that are determining the current shape of the industry and to examine the forces that will change its direction going forward The book is written in a management style and will appeal to all levels of personnel who work for airlines across the world It is also written for airport authorities aerospace manufacturers regulatory and government transportation agencies researchers and students of aviation management transport studies tourism and the wider air transport industry Straight and Level Stephen Holloway, 2008 This third edition of Straight and Level thoroughly updates the previous edition with extensive comments on recent industry developments and emerging business models The discussion is illustrated by current examples drawn from all sectors of the industry and every region of the world Anyone who wants to gain a deeper understanding of airline economics at a practical level and an insight into the reasons for its financial volatility should find the book of interest Cinema Beyond Territory Stephen Groening, 2019-07-25 In this groundbreaking exploration of in flight cinema Stephen Groening traces the history of this transnational cinematic practice At once a history of exhibition and an inquiry into changing forms of media and spectatorship this interdisciplinary book opens up new directions in the history of cinema visuality travel and cultural geography African Business ,2006 Africa Research Bulletin ,2006 Exporters' Encyclopaedia ,1998 Material is arranged geographically For each country there is a country profile followed by information on marketing data communications transportation business travel key contacts and a summary trade regulations and documentation required Also included are brief sections on U S ports U S foreign trade zones World Trade Center Association members U S government agencies providing assistance to exporters foreign trade organizations foreign communications and general exports and shipping information and practice Positive Impact of Adopting Information Technology in Enhancing Organizational Behavior of Emirates Airline Caroline Mutuku,2018-05-22 Essay from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 5 language English abstract Emirates Airline is one of the leading airlines in United Arab Emirates and it is a global airline that operates in 80 countries and 142 cities from its hub in Dubai to other destinations across the globe The core activities of the airline is the provision of commercial air transportation services both passengers and cargo across its destinations in the world The Emirates operates the largest fleets of Boeing 777 aircraft and Airbus A380 in the world Emirates continuous growth has been linked with its vision mission of striving to go further in all aspects of its operations combined with its organizational behavior and information technology which ensures that all the needs of its stakeholders for instance employee customers shareholders and the society are met

Emirates Graeme Wilson,2005 Emirates Airline Kimberly Mathe,Lauren Finnell,Paige Peterman,2019 In 2017 the airline industry has been at the center of a number of viral video incidents ranging from a passenger being injured while being dragged off a United Airline flight to an American Airline s employee challenging a male passenger to a fight With events like these it is an opportune time for an airline to position itself as a leader in customer service and travel amenities Emirates Airline based out of and owned by the country United Arab Emirates has long attempted to do just that by providing services to passengers that go above and beyond many of the standard features one would see on any of the big three US airline carriers This case provides an examination of Emirates Airline their history their strategy and positioning as well as a brief overview of some external threats and internal strengths and weaknesses for analysis The accompanying teaching note provides educators a series of learning objectives to achieve through a series of discussion assignments and a project

Analysis of Luxury Airlines Emirates Airways and Competitors Abedelazez Safi,2013 During the last decade travel and tourism has assisted the Emirates Group in spreading its wings into every aspect of travel tourism and business to become the fastest growing corporation in its field Emirates airlines and Middle East aviation system will face strong challenges with global aviation during the coming years In the mean while the overall growth aspiration of the region demands a high performing aviation system including airlines airports and air traffic control ATC that in 20 years must successfully serve more than four times the passengers it serves today However international benchmarks illustrate that even today s aviation system does not fulfill current demand In many Middle East countries aviation systems quality and efficiency levels are well below international levels e g compared to Europe and Asia Heavy regulation also has resulted in limited service in terms of route frequency and destinations high customer prices and a need for high government subsidies to maintain the system Middle East aviation markets especially United Arab Emirates have set the level for reforming their aviation systems and have started encouraging trading and deregulation of airlines rules In addition the Middle airline sector plays a smart role in developing a world class such as Qatar Airways which has a five star Skytrax ranking and Emirates Group which has above average profitability Aviation and transport infrastructure is the fundamental catalyst for the creation of global cities The UAE s open skies policy is the cornerstone upon which Dubai built its dynamic air transport hub which in turn supports the growth of other industry sectors The growth of Emirates embodies the spirit of competition and free enterprise which will continue to guide their policies for the benefit of the UAE and of the global community in which they operate Finally analyzing Emirates airline challenges through SWOT analysis and comparing it with Lufthansa Group a prove of being very active with Cargo and shipment services and passenger cater through developing there technology and advertise there 40 brands and looking to the needs of the customers It was very obvious of the strengthen of innovation and creativity of Emirates is much stronger than the weakness and keep in going to hire new employees and buying new plans even during Dubai crisis After compering Emirates with Lufthansa Group the largest airlines in terms of passenger and second largest airline of fleet aircraft We will prove that Emirates is the most innovative and the fastest airlines growing in the world since they are 25 years old and Lufthansa 86 years old
