W. Moore, 2012 This book charts the evolution of metaphysics since Descartes and provides a compelling case for why metaphysics matters Hamlet and the Rethinking of Man Eric P. Levy, 2008 What is a man Hamlet and the problematics of man In our circumstance and course of thought the problematics of conceptual scheme What should we do the predicament of practical reason Universal vs particular Hamlet and the madness in reason Defeated joy melancholy and eudaemonia in Hamlet Things standing thus unknown the epistemology of ignorance in Hamlet The problematic relation between reason and emotion in Hamlet The time is out of joint the resetting of time in Hamlet Would it were not so hypothetical alternatives in Hamlet Who's there problematizing the concept of a person in Hamlet Nor the exterior nor the inward man the problematics of personal identity in Hamlet This Is My Flesh Jae Hyung Cho, 2022-01-28 In John 6 51 59 John describes the Eucharist of Jesus by modeling Dionysus In particular John 6 53 unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood you have no life in you is one of the most difficult verses found anywhere in the Bible To explain this a new approach is needed when one consistently contemplates why John uses flesh instead of body and This is my flesh instead of This is my body The Dionysiac ritual of eating and tearing raw flesh shows cannibalistic elements Unlike other negative descriptions of cannibalism in ancient literature Dionysus is described as both an eater and a giver of raw flesh By reevaluating the negative term of cannibalism John positively applies this Dionysiac cannibalism to the Eucharistic words in 6 51 59 Because emphatically and slightly ironically scholars arguments show that John 6 is still a hard teaching of Jesus Jesus hard saying 6 60 is a consequence of this cannibalistic language and the ambiguous features of Dionysus

The Human A Priori A. W. Moore, 2023-07-09 The Human A Priori is a collection of essays by A W Moore one of them previously unpublished and the rest all revised These essays are all concerned more or less directly with something ineliminably anthropocentric in our systematic pursuit of a priori sense making Part I deals with the nature scope and limits of a priori sense making in general Parts II III and IV deal with what are often thought to be the three great exemplars of the systematic pursuit of such sense making philosophy in the case of Part II ethics in the case of Part III and mathematics in the case of Part IV Much of the attention throughout is devoted to the work of other philosophers Kant and Wittgenstein feature prominently and five of the essays take the form of reviews or critical notices of recent work in philosophy But the interest is never purely exegetical One of the lessons that emerges from the essays either in opposition to the views of these other philosophers or by invocation of their views is that we humans achieve nothing of real significance in philosophy ethics or mathematics except from a human point of view and hence that all three of these pursuits can be said to betoken what may reasonably be called the human a priori

Trapped in Thought Eric P. Levy, 2007-04-17 Eric P Levy s book investigates the mentality or attitude of cognitive apprehension expressed in Beckettian texts Primary areas of concern include how the Beckettian attitude began what concepts it invents or transforms to sustain its mode of thought how the mentality wards off factors which would refute or heal it and most paradoxical of all why this mentality ultimately reduces the mind to an estranged source of thought continuously repudiated by its own awareness The study uncovers the strategies by which experience is evacuated of all content but that consistent with the attitude registering it
