

Chapter 4 Practice Test

Name: Key

IMPORTANT: When you have completed your study guide, check your answers on Haiku in a different colored writing utensil. You MUST do the Haiku check to get full credit. Give yourself a check for a correct answer. Correct your mistakes for what you got wrong.

Section I: Multiple Choice

1. When we take a census, we attempt to collect data from

- a) A stratified random sample.
- b) Every individual chosen in a simple random sample.
- c) Every individual in the population.
- d) A voluntary response sample.
- e) A Convenience sample.

2. A study of treatments for angina (pain due to low blood supply to the heart) compared bypass surgery, angioplasty, and use of drugs. The study looked at the medical records of thousands of angina patients whose doctors had chosen one of these treatments. It found that the average survival time of patients given drugs was the highest. What do you conclude?

- a) This study proves that drugs prolong life and should be the treatment of choice.
- b) We can conclude that drugs prolong life because the study was a comparative experiment.
- c) We can't conclude that drugs prolong life because the patients were volunteers.
- d) We can't conclude that drugs prolong life because the groups might differ in ways besides the treatment.
- e) We can't conclude that drugs prolong life because no placebo was used.

3. Ruby wanted to estimate the average amount of time that students at her school spend on Facebook each day. She gets an alphabetical roster of students in the school from the registrar's office and numbers the students from 1 to 1137. Then Ruby uses a random number generator to pick 30 distinct labels from 1 to 1137. She surveys those 30 students about their Facebook use. Ruby's sample is a simple random sample because

- a) It was selected using a chance process.
- b) It gave every individual the same chance to be selected.
- c) It gave every possible sample of size 30 an equal chance to be selected.
- d) It doesn't involve strata or clusters.
- e) It is guaranteed to be representative of the population.

Concept Research in Food Product Design and Development Howard R. Moskowitz,Sebastiano Porretta,Matthias Silcher,2008-02-28 Concepts are critical for the development and marketing of products and services They constitute the blueprint for these products and services albeit at the level of consumers rather than at the technical level A good product concept can help make the product a success by guiding developers and advertising in the right direction Yet there is a dearth of both practical and scientific information about how to create and evaluate concepts There has been little or no focus on establishing knowledge bases for concepts Concept development is too often relegated to the so called fuzzy front end Concept Research in Food Product Design and Development remedies this inattention to product concepts by providing a unique treatment of concepts for the business professional as well as for research scientists The book begins with simple principles of concepts moves forward to methods for testing concepts and then on to more substantive areas such as establishing validity testing internationally and with children creating databases and selling in new methods for concept testing The book combines a how to business book with a detailed treatment of the different facets of concept research As such the book represents a unique contribution to business applications in food and consumer research methods The book is positioned specifically for foods to maintain a focus on a coherent set of topics Concept Research in Food Product Design and Development appeals to a wide variety of audiences R D marketing sensory analysts and universities alike Corporate R D professionals will learn how to create strong concepts Marketers will recognize how concepts are at the heart of their business Sensory analysts will find the book a natural extension of their interest in product features University students will understand how concept research is a critical part of the consumer connection Concept Research in Food Product Design and Development is the definitive innovative text in describing how to create analyze and capitalize upon new product concepts Saturday Review ,1886 Educational Measurement in High School Charles Watters Odell,1930 Oracle Database 10g OCP Certification All-In-One Exam Guide John Watson,Damir Bersinic,2005-09-12 Four for the price of one Oracle Database 10g OCP Certification All in One Exam Guide is the only book that offers thorough exam prep and a great on the job reference for both the latest OCA and OCP exams Technical variants on Hanon's exercises for pianoforte Orville Alvin Lindquist,1929 Foundations of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism Colin Baker,1996 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to bilingualism and bilingual education In a straightforward style it discusses bilingualism at individual language minority group and national levels Written as a foundational textbook for students and teachers it provides a detailed and integrated map of bilingualism and bilingual education The Publishers Weekly ,1878
