Bmw Case Study Marketing:

Marketing Case Studies in Emerging Markets Dilip S. Mutum, Soo Yeong Ewe, Ezlika M. Ghazali, Racheal Louis Vincent, 2024-04-01 There is an increasing interest in emerging markets because of the higher economic growth rates compared to developed economies. However, these markets have a diverse consumer base with unique needs and preferences. As a result, companies in these markets face different challenges and opportunities. Unfortunately, there is a lack of marketing cases from these markets. This book presents actual real-world marketing cases in these markets, offering an in-depth look at some of the issues faced by companies in different industries. It is hoped that the cases would serve as valuable reference material for academics, students, professionals in marketing, business strategy, and other related fields, as well as policymakers to better understand the challenges of these markets and develop strategies to succeed in them.

Case Studies in Management: The Indian Context Amit Agarwal, Mihir Joshi, Nabila Ansari, Shagun Tyagi, Vivek, 2018-12-21 The goal of this book is to grab readers' attention on how the case method helps to do problem-solving and diagnostic skills for business students, individual and society. If students are encouraged to use their own initiative through groundwork assignments and class discussion, they are better placed to transfer decision-making and problem-solving skills into the workplace. Gradually, the primary objective of this book is to help the reader put theory into practice. This book is segmented into 5 sections covering all important concepts related to management and commerce. Cases are ideally suited to business studies, finance, accounting, marketing, economic bureaucracy in banks, banking, and operation management courses, which offer practical computing skills as an integral part of the course syllabus. Managing critical scenarios in business is the real challenge that classrooms cannot go in depth with. However, understanding administrative challenges in a virtual environment gives an edge to the reciprocator in reality. Right from the CEO to the manager, everyone is focused on dealing with situations that involve risks or taking risks to convert them into opportunities. It is therefore necessary to understand how different real-life situations can arise and what possible decision could be to handle them. Sometimes there are no alternatives in front of a manager, so he/she looks toward the team mates and out of the many choices he/she makes one. The one decision that changes the whole direction of the task. Hence, this book as a beginning step to the budding managers or entrepreneurs belonging to business families or seek to move ahead in business or transform presents several cases that provide a wide developmental array to the business education. The content of the book is in eloquent manner and attempt has been made to maintain easy understanding of the caselets.

A Case Analysis - Exploring Customer Attitudes on BMW Marion Maguire, geb. Weiler, 2006-02-09 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Giving the powerful means of branding and brand based differentiation for creating and sustaining a competitive advantage especially in highly competitive markets such as the automobile market this study explores brand attitudes of existing and potential customers towards the brand BMW Moreover this study analyzes the level and source of customer satisfaction as well as the level and source of customer loyalty of existing and potential customers While this study considers five different factors for the degree of customer satisfaction there is only one factor considered for the degree of brand loyalty The factors considered for customer satisfaction are perceived customer service perceived quality perceived innovation perceived technology and perceived price while the factor considered for brand loyalty is customer satisfaction itself The analysis of brand loyalty distinguishes between repurchase loyalty and attitudinal loyalty former being analyzed for existing customers and latter being analyzed for potential customers The results indicate that 1 BMW has a high level of awareness both in recognition and recall 2 the image of BMW is favorable strong and relevant and 3 BMW is mainly associated with performance and style by existing customers and status by potential customers Despite these overall positive results weaknesses were identified that contain opportunities for BMW The regression analysis indicated that there is a strong positive correlation between customer satisfaction and perceived customer service and perceived innovation for existing customers and a strong positive correlation between customer satisfaction and perceived customer service perceived innovation and perceived price for potential customers Furthermore the regression analyses indicated that there is a strong positive correlation between customer satisfaction and brand loyalty both in form of repurchase as well as attitudinal loyalty Branding has been around for centuries as a means to distinguish the goods of one producer from those of another More and more companies have come to the realization that one of their most valuable assets is the brand name associated with their products Highly competitive markets like the automotive market make powerful brands essential to accomplishing growth By using the underlying concept of brand equity this paper investigates in which areas brand equity has been created for the German Brief, 1999 Journal of Marketing, 1991

A critical evaluation of Michael Porter's five forces framework. Case study of the Vietnamese textile industry Johannes Walder, 2013-04-10 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2012 in the subject Business economics Economic and Social History grade 72% University of Greenwich Business course International Business Environment language English abstract In times of globalisation strategic decisions like diversification and international expansion become more and more important As the economic world is developing into an increasingly intertwined network managers need strategic tools to facilitate their decisions One of these models is the Five Forces model of Michael Porter He developed this approach in 1980 in his book Competitive Strategy Techniques for analysing industries and competitors He claims that any industry has five basic forces that shape the internal competition This essay will analyse the underlying theories of the model and the its structure itself and apply it to a case study The case study portraits the Vietnamese textile industry and their association with the government By analysing the case study this paper will show the models insufficiencies and how it can be improved
