Lind, William G. Marchal, Samuel Adam Wathen, 2008 Enhancing Small-business Opportunities in the DoD Nancy Y. Moore, 2008 Impediments may exist that hamper small business contracting opportunities Among the issues examined in the report are federal goals for small business purchases the unique purchase needs of the Department of Defense and how they affect opportunities for small businesses The study also examines contract bundling subcontracting in professional services and research and development opportunities in the Small Business Innovation Research and the Mentor Protege Programs electronic payment systems and whether firms graduate from the programs or increase in size from small to larger businesses as a result of various small business preferences including those for procurement Airways ,2009 Plane Simple Truth Geoffrey Thomas,Guy Norris,Steve Creedy,Christine Forbes Smith,2008 Foreign Direct Investment in Latin America and the Caribbean 2018 United Nations,2019-01-30 This publication sets out and analyses the main foreign direct investment FDI trends in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean In 2017 certain trends that had already emerged in the global economic landscape became more established In particular announcements of potential restrictions on trade and pressures to relocate production to developed countries were confirmed At the same time China has taken steps to restrict outflows of foreign direct investment FDI in order to align these flows with its strategic plan Adding to these factors is the expansion of digital technologies whose international expansion requires smaller investments in tangible assets Firms in these areas are heavily concentrated in the United States and China which reduces the need for cross border mergers and acquisitions Belgisch staatsblad Belgium,1959 Towards a European Defence Market Erkki Aalto,2008 EU governments are gradually coming around to the idea that they need to open up their defence markets especially at a time when growing budgetary constraints clash with the increasing need for sophisticated equipment Governments have already agreed to the Code of Conduct on Defence Procurement introduced by the European Defence Agency in July 2006 but the EDA cannot force governments to comply with the code Also the protectionist attitude of Member States derives from the fact that they regard defence procurement as an area that overlaps with national sovereignty The European Commission is currently proposing new procurement and trade directives aimed at streamlining defence market legislation and it is to be hoped that Member States will respond positively to this initiative The proposed directives would open up the defence market improve European cooperation on armaments and lead to a more competitive European defence industry Plus in the ongoing debate about the European defence market the transatlantic defence market should not be forgotten especially given the increasingly important role that American and European companies play in this arena on both sides of the pond P 4 of cover
