Professor Kidd's scholarly writing. The issue begins with Kidd's reflection on the ways in which sport is constituted by society and a lifetime of simultaneous scholarship and intervention. The rest of the issue is organized around three themes: the Canadian sport system, the Olympic Movement, and his recovery projects. Historical writing that brought long forgotten earlier initiatives and episodes back into public understanding. In each case Kidd provides a brief introduction of 1000-1500 words that sets the context for the original article and provides an update on the subject matter. This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society (The Spectator, 1910) and Monthly Journal of Insurance Economics, 1966.

Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley, 2008-01-05. Now in its ninety-eighth year of publication, this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians. Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society. Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life: politics, media, academia, business, sports, and the arts from every area of human activity. Each entry details birth date and place, education, family, career history, memberships, creative works, honours, and awards, and full addresses. Indispensable to researchers, students, media, business, government, and schools. Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge.
