This collection of essays explores the post-colonial concerns and themes that have shaped modern Indian literature, reflecting the complex interplay of cultural, social, and political forces in India's contemporary context. The diverse range of perspectives presented in this book sheds light on the rich tapestry of voices and experiences that define the Indian literary landscape today. The essays in this volume delve into a variety of themes, including identity, gender, social justice, diaspora, and the legacy of colonialism. They interrogate how Indian writers navigate their relationship with the colonial past while also engaging with the challenges and opportunities presented by India's rapidly changing social and economic landscape. By exploring the intersections of language, identity, and power, these essays offer insightful analyses of how post-colonial concerns are woven into the fabric of contemporary Indian writing in English. Their interdisciplinary and nuanced analyses provide a comprehensive overview of the complex realities and enduring legacies that continue to shape Indian writing in English. Together, they challenge and expand our understanding of the post-colonial concerns that animate contemporary Indian literature, offering new insights and perspectives that will resonate with scholars, students, and enthusiasts of Indian literature alike. It is hoped that the essays in this volume will inspire further exploration and dialogue and serve as a source of inspiration for those who seek to understand the intricate complexities of contemporary Indian literature from a post-colonial perspective. I Swallowed the Moon: The Poetry of Gulzar Saba Mahmood Bashir,2013-11-15 A comprehensive analysis of the work of one of India's foremost poets, Gulzar is arguably the most well-known contemporary poet writing in Hindustani. As a poet, he occupies a unique place, being a Progressive poet in a popular culture. His poetry appeals to all strata of society without compromising either on literary merit or on its ability to convey the most exalted thought in an accessible idiom. In I Swallowed the Moon, Saba Bashir attempts to analyse what makes Gulzar the poet he is. What is his signature style? What are the issues that concern his poetry, and what are the recurrent images in it? She also draws a parallel between the poet's film and non-film poetry and points out how they are used interchangeably. Including the most comprehensive list of all Gulzar's poems, film and non-film songs, this is a valuable addition to the corpus of work on a great poet.
