Guy Cook Discourse Analysis:

Discourse Guy Cook, 1989-06-29 Discourse analysis is the study of spoken and written language in its social and psychological context This book explains the relevant theory and applies it to classroom activities designed to improve students discourse skills The teacher is then shown how these activities may be further developed in specific teaching situations

Applied Linguistics Guy Cook, 2025-01-06 Applied Linguistics investigates real world problems involving language As such it has the difficult task of mediating between academic expertise and lived experience attempting to reconcile opposed interests and perspectives This clearly written introduction provides a concise but comprehensive overview of the most pressing and controversial issues surrounding contemporary language use today including intercultural communication political persuasion new technologies the growth of English language in education and foreign language teaching and learning

The Discourse of Advertising Guy Cook, 2001 This second edition considers advertising in the context of current changes in communication All chapters have been fully revised and updated and substantial new material has been added The social functions and aesthetic effects of advertisements are comprehensively analysed across a wide range of media from billboards to email and the Internet Controversially advertisements are contrasted and compared with literary texts throughout The book clearly explains relevant concepts from semiotics poetics and linguistics and can serve as an introduction to all of these disciplines Practical exercises to stimulate further discussion are included at the end of each chapter resource for all students of the English language and linguistics

Multiple Perspectives in Linguistic Research on Baltic Languages Ineta Dabašinskienė, Nicole Nau, Aurelia Usoniene, 2012-01-17 The ten contributions to this volume present original research on grammar and discourse in modern Lithuanian and Latvian. They reflect the diversity of approaches in linguistic research on Baltic languages that has developed in recent years after a period where these languages were studied almost exclusively from the perspective of historical comparative linguistics. Current research perspectives include among others perspectives from discourse analysis, sociolinguistics, language acquisition research, corpus linguistics, contrastive studies and linguistic typology. The studies in this volume explore new ways of describing the system and use of Latvian or Lithuanian from a synchronic non-normative point of view. They focus on grammatical categories and constructions, modality, evidentiality, case, existential clauses, grammatical characteristics of lexical classes, reflexive verbs, numerals, the characteristics of certain forms of discourse, academic discourse, food discourse and the effects of an ideology of correct language on language users.

Handbook for Biblical Interpretation W. Randolph Tate, 2012-11-01 This handbook provides a comprehensive guide to methods, terms and concepts used by biblical interpreters. It offers students and non-specialists an accessible resource for understanding the complex vocabulary that accompanies serious biblical studies. Articles arranged alphabetically explain terminology associated with reading the Bible as literature, clarify the various methods Bible scholars use to study biblical texts and illuminate how different interpretive approaches can contribute to our understanding. Article references and topical bibliographies point readers to resources for further study. This handbook, now updated and revised to be even more useful for students, was previously published as Interpreting the Bible: A Handbook of Terms and Methods. It is a suitable complement to any standard hermeneutics textbook.

Advertising and Advertising as a type of discourse Angelika Felser, 2017-10-26 Essay from the year 1998 in the subject Communications, Public Relations, Advertising, Marketing, Social Media, University of Münster, Englisches Seminar, language: English, abstract: The topic of this essay is Advertising and The Discourse of Advertising. The author of this essay sums up some of the main ideas of Guy Cook, Geoffrey N. Leech, Greg Myers and Prof. Dr. Klaus Ostheeren. In order to look at an ad as a discourse type, it is necessary to look at Jacques Dubois and the Groupe who worked on the structure of language rhetorical operations, Isotopies and Metabolies. The latter can either evoke the pleasure of recognition or the pleasure of surprise. The AIDA-formula, the term register, the standard components of press advertisements etc. are also subject of this essay.

The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics James Simpson, 2011-03-15 The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics serves as an introduction and reference point to key areas in the field of applied linguistics. The five sections of the volume encompass a wide range of topics from a variety of perspectives: applied linguistics in action, language learning, language education, language culture and identity, perspectives on language in use, descriptions of language for applied linguistics. The forty-seven chapters connect knowledge about language to decision making in the real world. The volume as a whole highlights the role of applied linguistics which is to make insights drawn from language study relevant to such decision making The chapters are written by specialists from around the world Each one provides an overview of the history of the topic the main current issues and possible future trajectory Where appropriate authors discuss the impact and use of new technology in the area Suggestions for further reading are provided with every chapter The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics is an essential purchase for postgraduate students of applied linguistics Editorial board Ronald Carter Guy Cook Diane Larsen Freeman and Amy Tsui Discourse Analysis H.
