INTRODUCTION

The concept of world as a global village and growing interdependence of the nations, markets have enhanced the importance of consumer rights, protection and promotion. People are demanding quality products and services for the value which they pay. Non-satisfaction of good impact on the quality and safety of goods and services, and the consumers are facing difficulty to buy and experience made products in many ways like high prices, misleading advertisement etc. Both the government and businessmen should lay emphasis on the satisfaction of the consumer.

CONSUMER AWARENESS

A person who buys any goods or services for a consideration which has been paid or promised in goods used and partly promised or under any system of deferred payment is a Consumer. A person who obtains such goods for resale or for any commercial purpose will not be a consumer. However, if such goods are bought by a person exclusively for the purpose of reselling his livelihood by means of self-employment then such a person will be considered as a consumer. The Consumer awareness is essential in all of the following stages:
