Things Hoped For Andrew Clements,2008-04-17 Seventeen year old Gwen is preparing to audition for New York City's top music schools when her grandfather mysteriously disappears leaving Gwen only a phone message telling her not to worry. But there's nothing more stressful than practicing for her auditions not knowing where her grandfather is and being forced to lie about his whereabouts when her insistent great uncle demands an audience with him. Then Gwen meets Robert also in town for music auditions and the two pair up to brave the city without supervision. As auditions approach and her great uncle becomes more aggressive Gwen and Robert make a startling discovery. Suddenly Gwen's hopes are turned upside down and she and Robert are united in ways neither of them could have foretold.

About the Novel Frindle is the story of a clever time wasting schemer's innovative plan to create his own word for the dictionary. Ten year old Nick Allen has a reputation for developing ingenious plans that distract teachers. For the first time ever his diversions fail to create the desired results in Mrs Granger's fifth grade language arts class. Instead of distracting her he ends up with an extra assignment and oral presentation on how new entries are added to the dictionary. Surprisingly the boring assignment leads to Nick's most clever idea yet when he decides to create his own new word frindle. Nick recruits five fellow students to support his efforts in changing the name of pen to frindle. Their insistence on referring to pens as frindles causes a major commotion when Mrs Granger's passion for vocabulary and strict emphasis on the correct use of language result in a battle of wills that threatens to disrupt the whole school. Their war of words spreads beyond the school resulting in after school punishments a home visit from the principal national publicity economic opportunities for local businessmen and eventually inclusion in the dictionary.
