Traumatic Experience and Repressed Memory in Magical Realist Novels Md Abu Shahid Abdullah,2020-03-02 This book explores the close association between the literary representation of historical trauma and the alternative narrative form of magical realism underscoring the role of memory empathy and imagination It discusses the potential of magical realism to give a literary representation to individual and collective trauma arising from the Holocaust slavery and apartheid and to turn those unspoken memories into narratives It also analyses the role of magical realism in depicting trauma suffered by female victims during and following those events Again by dealing with the above mentioned events their specific historical context and universal meaning for humankind this book highlights a universal experience of trauma Toni Morrison ON Mothers and Motherhood Lee Baxter,2017-07-01 This collection of essays explores the gamut of Toni Morrison s novels from her earliest to her most recent Each of the essays examines the various ways in which Morrison s work delineates and interrogates Western culture s ideological norms of mothers motherhood and mothering The essays consider Morrison s female and in some cases male characters as challenging the concept that mothering and motherhood is a stable notion The essays reveal both that mothering is a central concept in Morrison s work and that an examination of this pervasive notion illuminates her corpus as a whole Toni Morrison on Mothers and Motherhood offers a wide range of scholarship that provides a compelling look at Morrison s work through an array of interdisciplinary approaches that are grounded in feminist gender studies This interdisciplinary collection of essays will be of interest to scholars and critics concerned with the notions of how we define mother motherhood mothering and the problem of its interpretation within Western society as well as those engaged in the interpretation of African American literature and Morrison's work in particular Birth Justice Julia Chinyere Oparah, Alicia D. Bonaparte, 2015-12-22 There is a global crisis in maternal health care for black women In the United States black women are over three times more likely to perish from pregnancy related complications than white women their babies are half as likely to survive the first year Many black women experience policing coercion and disempowerment during pregnancy and childbirth and are disconnected from alternative birthing traditions This book places black women's voices at the center of the debate on what should be done to fix the broken maternity system and foregrounds black women's agency in the emerging birth justice movement Mixing scholarly activist and personal perspectives the book shows readers how they too can change lives one birth at a time Spectres from the Past Portia Owusu, 2019-11-22 Spectres from the Past The History of Slavery in West African and African American Narratives examines the merit of the claim that West African writers in comparison to African Americans authors deliberately expunge the history of slavery from literary narratives The book explores slavery in contemporary West African and African American literature by looking at the politics of history and memory It interrogates notions of History and memory by considering the possibility that shared traumas such as West African and African American experiences of slavery can be remembered and historicised differently according to critical factors such as socio economic realities cultural beliefs and familial traditions At the heart of the book are compelling and new readings of slavery in six literary narratives that draws on cultural philosophies musicology and linguistics to demonstrate diverse and unusual ways that Black writers in West Africa and North America write about slavery in literature Farming While Black Leah Penniman, 2018 Farming While Black is the first comprehensive how to guide for aspiring African heritage growers to reclaim their dignity as agriculturists and for all farmers to understand the distinct technical contributions of African heritage people to sustainable agriculture At Soul Fire Farm author Leah Penniman co created the Black and Latino Farmers Immersion BLFI program as a container for new farmers to share growing skills in a culturally relevant and supportive environment led by people of color Farming While Black organizes and expands upon the curriculum of the BLFI to provide readers with a concise guide to all aspects of small scale farming from business planning to preserving the harvest Throughout the chapters Penniman uplifts the wisdom of the African diasporic farmers and activists whose work informs the techniques described from whole farm planning soil fertility seed selection and agroecology to using whole foods in culturally appropriate recipes sharing stories of ancestors and tools for healing from the trauma associated with slavery and economic exploitation on the land Woven throughout the book is the story of Soul Fire Farm a national leader in the food justice movement AMAZON Becoming Trustworthy White Allies Melanie S. Morrison, 2025-08-15 In this collection of essays lectures and real life stories long time antiracist facilitator Melanie S Morrison outlines the actions white people must undertake to become partners in the work of racial justice Connotations, 2007 Defining Human Kris Weller, 2010 Japanese Language and Literature, 2004 Courting Failure Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson, 2007 For the past twenty years the law and literature movement has been gaining ground More recently a feminist perspective has enriched the field With Courting Failure Women and the Law in Twentieth Century Literature Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson adds a compelling voice to the discussion Courting Failure critically explores the representation of women fictional and historical in conflict with the law Macpherson focuses on the judicial system and the staging of women's guilt examining both the female suspect and the female victim in a wide variety of media including novels like Toni Morrison's Beloved and Margaret Atwood's Alias Grace theatrical plays movies such as I Want to Live and Legally Blonde and the television series Ally McBeal In these texts and others canonical or popular Macpherson exposes the court as an arena in which women often fail or succeed only by subverting the system Combining feminist literary theory with the discourse of the law and literature movement Courting Failure is a highly readable and analytically rigorous study of justice and gender on the page and screen programs giving your students the facts and theoretical foundation they need to make their own informed decisions about discrimination in the system Uniquely unbiased THE COLOR OF JUSTICE makes every effort to incorporate discussion of all major race groups found in the United States Land and Landscape in Francographic Literature Magali Compan, Katarzyna Pieprzak, 2007 The literary production of landscape in the French writing world whether in Quebec Morocco or Mauritius is not new but over the past fifty years it has developed added significance As the dynamics of globalization continue to displace bodies around the world and deterritorialize its subjects the relevance of land and landscape as a potent source for cultural identity nationalist aspirations and alternative post nationalist subjectivities continues to grow The essays in this collection examine contemporary literature in French from and in multiple spaces around the world and consider the ways the vernacular and the local as well as the virtual and transnational re claim re map and re fashion post colonial national cultural and ethnic landscapes while also questioning both the limits and challenges to this imagination Contributors address landscape as an imaginary constructed and negotiated literary space rather than an unproblematic transcription of an external geographic reality and through this prism explore images of dispossession resistance and re appropriation These essays link the literary conquest of nature to the process of writing righting a history of imperialism and neocolonialism locate in nature the rhythms of a material identity and metaphysical reality beyond urban and industrial capitalism use landscape to explore the psychic disturbances of displacement and call for a reinvention of places of memory The collection aims to illuminate what can best be described as a Francographie that traces in multiple hands tenuous if not altogether uncertain geographies and unfinished maps
