Parental Liability in EU Competition Law Peter Whelan, 2023-08-10 In enforcing EU competition law the Commission employs a unique doctrine of parental antitrust liability it imposes fines on the parent company of an infringing subsidiary in cases where the parent exercises decisive influence over the subsidiary s commercial policy Critics of this contentious aspect of EU competition law believe that the doctrine is unfair ineffective obscure disproportionate contrary to due process and based upon a dubious if not extremely flimsy justificatory foundation Such criticism raises serious and unanswered questions about the legitimacy of the Commission s efforts to enforce competition law

Parental Liability in EU Competition Law A Legitimacy Focused Approach is the first monograph to be dedicated to this controversial topic Written by Professor Peter Whelan the book contends that although the general concept of parental liability can be justified in principle the current EU level doctrine of parental antitrust liability in fact suffers from a distinct and problematic lack of legitimacy More specifically the said doctrine displays significant deficiencies with respect to effectiveness fairness and legality Given this undesirable state of affairs Parental Liability in EU Competition Law offers a fully rationalised reformulated approach to parental antitrust liability for EU competition law violations that is built around the notion of parental fault That approach provides a solid normative account of how to impose parental antitrust liability in a manner that is theoretically robust effective in practice fair in substance and legally sound

The 1996 IEEE International Conference on Neural Networks, June 3-6, 1996, Sheraton Washington Hotel, Washington, DC, USA.: Proceedings ,1996 Patents and Global Administrative Law David Tilt,2025-07-18 The book applies values and concepts from Global Administrative Law GAL to international patent law demonstrating how limiting technocratic and overly economic language can be Highlighting the administrative foundations of patent law the book argues that in its international form it can be analysed using the same principles of participation transparency and accountability found in national administrative law At the heart of the book is a simple question What does international patent law look like when we approach it through the lens of these values What is being left out when patent law is described predominantly in terms of its technical legal provisions or economic impact The book presents three interrelated contexts EU patent law bilateral trade agreements and the multilateral space Modern patent law is increasingly discussed in terms of national competitiveness or economic potential which reveals only a narrow understanding of how patent law evolves and functions The vocabulary of administrative law provides a fresh way of recasting reframing and re describing the dynamics of international patent law in a way that is more accessible to those outside of a traditional patent scholarship audience A fundamental objective of the book is to challenge the tendency towards technocratic isolation in patent law The book uses accessible vocabulary and represents a new way of conceptualising and understanding how patent law develops on a global scale The book will be of interest to researchers in the field of patent law international law and administrative law
