Sustainable Livelihood Approach And Climate Change:

A Sustainable Livelihood Approach to Poverty Reduction Vishwambhar Prasad Sati, Lalrinpuia Vangchhia, 2016-11-26 This book presents a socio economic and livelihood analysis of agriculturally dependent communities of Mizoram the eastern extension of the Himalaya using the sustainable livelihood approach Such an approach to poverty reduction is inevitable particularly in areas where livelihoods depend largely on biomass based agriculture and livestock production Mizoram possesses abundant natural resources land water and forest but those resources are largely unused The region suffers from chronic poverty and malnutrition and climate change has further influenced livelihood patterns This work studies all the aspects of natural potentials and livelihood status in Mizoram It also discusses the major driving forces that influence livelihood patterns Based on a detailed analysis of empirical data several policy measures are suggested to cope with chronic poverty and malnutrition The book is therefore highly useful for all stakeholders students researchers academicians policy makers and politicians involved in rural community development

Climate Change, Vulnerability and Migration S. Irudaya Rajan, R. B. Bhagat, 2017-09-22 This book highlights how climate change has affected migration in the Indian subcontinent Drawing on field research it argues that extreme weather events such as floods droughts cyclones cloudbursts as well as sea level rise desertification and declining crop productivity have shown higher frequency in recent times and have depleted biological diversity and the capacity of the ecosystem to provide food and livelihood security The volume shows how the socio economically poor are worst affected in these circumstances and resort to migration to survive The essays in the volume study the role of remittances sent by migrants to their families in environmentally fragile zones in providing an important cushion and adaptation capabilities to cope with extreme weather events The book looks at the socio economic and political drivers of migration different forms of mobility mortality and morbidity levels in the affected population and discusses mitigation and adaptation strategies The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of environment and ecology migration and diaspora studies development studies sociology and social anthropology governance and public policy and politics

Adaptation and mitigation policies in Cameroon Félicien Kengoum, Anne Marie Tiani, The purpose of this study is to identify new synergistic pathways between climate change mitigation and adaptation policies in Cameroon using an approach based on a literature review of the political processes that led to the introduction of the two strategies The common feature of the two political processes is the absence of strategy in Cameroon The country is finding it difficult to assimilate and coordinate these processes at the national level More attention is being given to mitigation than to adaptation In any case it is difficult to formulate any political options without complete studies on the responses to the drivers of deforestation and forest degradation and on the vulnerability of the forest populations and their capacity to absorb climate shocks

Revisiting Environmental and Natural Resource Questions in Sub-Saharan Africa Wilson Akpan, Philani Moyo, 2017-06-23 Based on case studies in Southern Africa West Africa and East Africa this book revisits some of the dilemmas and paradoxes associated with the development management and utilisation of environmental resources as well as lacklustre official handling of climate change related challenges in Sub Saharan Africa On the subject of natural resource exploitation in particular the book revisits scholarly debates and specific practices around compensation benefit and burden sharing local participation and space place dynamics It highlights fundamental ambiguities in the ways the dominant discourses and policy responses have been framed and mobilised and examines epistemic and ideational incongruences that have hobbled and sometimes negated the effectiveness of otherwise well intentioned interventions On climate change the book revisits debates around the vulnerability assets nexus with regard to mitigation and adaptation as well as the intersection of climate information and livelihoods in agro based settings The contradictions gaps and limitations of climate change policies and strategies in different regions are re examined based on new data In the last few years the Environment and Natural Resources Working Group of the South African Sociological Association SASA has intensified efforts to go beyond the annual SASA Congresses and the production of journal articles in making the research agendas of its members more visible to the global scholarly and policy community This book is one result of such efforts It calls for a constant questioning of orthodoxies and the promotion of ethnographically sensitive and epistemologically nuanced scholarly and policy approaches to developmental challenges in Africa especially in relation to environmental resources and environmental change
