

Chapter 1

1. Sound sequences. Any word that conforms to the sound pattern of English is a correct answer. For example:

Bliting: bl as in blood, iting as in biting

Krame: kr as in cream, ame as in aim

Swirler: sw as in swim, irl as in girl, er as in rider

Kristclean: kr as in cream, i as in pit, st as in street, clean as in clean

Arfa: as in atlas

Oxfo: ox as in ox, fo as in foe

Existing English words as names of new products are also acceptable: for example, Kleen or Clean as the name of a laundry soap.

2. Grammaticality judgments. The following sentences are ungrammatical, but note that some judgments may vary across dialects:

- a. **Robin forced the sheriff go.*

The word to is missing in front of the verb go. The verb force requires a to infinitive in the embedded clause.

- f. **He drove my house by.*

Particles are preposition-like words that occur with verbs such as look, as in look up the number or look over the data. Particles can occur after their direct object: look the number up; look the data over. True prepositions do not behave this way. He ran up the stairs is grammatical, but **He ran the stairs up* is not. The by in He drove by my house functions as a preposition and may not occur after the direct object.

- g. **Did in a corner little Jack Horner sit?*

You cannot turn a statement that begins with a prepositional phrase into a question. While you can form a question from Little Jack Horner sat in a corner with Did little Jack Horner sit in a corner, you cannot question the sentence In a corner little Jack Horner sat.

- h. **Elizabeth is resembled by Charles.*

The verb resemble does not occur in passive sentences.

- k. **It is eager to love a kitten.*

If the pronoun it refers to an animate (nonhuman) thing (e.g., a dog), the sentence is grammatical. If the word it is a "dummy subject," as in It's easy to love a kitten, the sentence is ungrammatical because the adjective eager must have a referential subject.

- l. **That birds can fly flabbergasts.*

Flabbergast is a transitive verb: it requires a direct object. Compare That birds can fly flabbergasts John.

- n. **Has the nurse slept the baby yet?*

The verb sleep is intransitive: it cannot take a direct object (in this case, the baby).

- o. **I was surprised for you to get married.*

The passive participle surprise cannot be followed by a "for . . ." complementizer. This is true for a whole set of verbs (emotive verbs), including amuse, annoy, and bewilder. The sentence could be corrected in a number of ways, including changing for to that and changing to get into got: I was surprised that you got married.

- p. **I wonder who and Mary went swimming.*

This "question" is derived from the more basic sentence Someone and Mary went swimming. The coordinate structure constraint (see Chapter 3 for mention, but not a complete description) requires
