Business Management Essentials from Modern and Buddhist Perspectives Titus De Silva, PhD, 2026-04-23 Business Management Essentials from Modern and Buddhist Perspectives presents a holistic approach to management by combining contemporary business functions with Buddhist teachings that have sustained the Buddhist community for over 2 500 years The book uniquely covers 17 business functions through both modern and Buddhist perspectives featuring 112 citations from the original Pali canon and 30 verses from the Dhammapada Unlike other works on business and Buddhism it specifically draws from the Theravada tradition that originated during Buddha s time avoiding inaccuracies found in other texts while using illustrative stories to demonstrate how poor management decisions can lead to failures This distinctive work stands apart from previous books on business and Buddhism by providing in depth analysis of individual business functions rather than general principles offering organisations a path to develop management systems based on ethical and moral principles Each chapter methodically demonstrates how Buddhist practices can enhance business effectiveness creating mutual benefits for businesses and all stakeholders including employees customers shareholders suppliers communities and governments ultimately promoting organisational systems that contribute positively to humanity while ensuring business survival in today's competitive environment

Managing Nonprofit Organizations Mary Tschirhart, Wolfgang Bielefeld, 2012-07-11

MANAGING NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS This essential resource offers an overall understanding of nonprofits based on both the academic literature and practitioner experience. It shows how to lead, manage, govern, and structure effective and ethical nonprofit organizations. Managing Nonprofit Organizations reveals what it takes to be entrepreneurial and collaborative, formulate successful strategies, assess performance, manage change, acquire resources, be a responsible financial steward, and design and implement solid marketing and communication plans. Managing Nonprofit Organizations is the only introductory text on this subject that manages to do three critical things equally well: It's comprehensive, covering all the key topics leaders of NPOs need to know about; it's practical, providing lots of examples, case incidents, and experiential exercises that connect the content to the real world; and it's the best of all and most unique compared to others, it's research-based, drawing on the latest and best empirical studies that look into what works and doesn't work in the world of nonprofit management.

Vic Murray, professor, School of Public Administration, University of Victoria. This book is a rarity, a text that can be used both as the focus for academic study and as a source of stimulating ideas for those practitioners who want to explore theories about management and how they can be applied so they can do a better job.

Tschirhart and Bielefeld have explained all aspects of nonprofit management and leadership in a way that will stimulate as well as inform.

Richard Brewster, executive director, National Center on Nonprofit Enterprise, Virginia Tech University. Managing Nonprofit Organizations presents a comprehensive treatment of this important topic. The book satisfies the competencies and curriculum guidelines developed by NASPAA and by NACC and would be ideal for instruction. The book maintains its commitment to informing management and leadership throughout the nonprofit sector.

Jeffrey L. Brudney, Albert A. Levin Chair of Urban Studies and Public Service, Cleveland State University. This is an important book written by two of the leading scholars in the nonprofit studies field. Nonprofit managers, board members, funders, educators, and others will find Managing Nonprofit Organizations extremely valuable.

Michael O'Neill, professor of nonprofit management, University of San Francisco. Here's the book that my students have been asking for: just the right mix of theory, presentation, research findings, and practical suggestions to serve the thoughtful nonprofit management practitioner. It will inform, instruct, and ultimately inspire.

Rikki Abzug, professor of management, Anisfield School of Business, Ramapo College.
