Teologia Mistica:

The Oxford Handbook of Dionysius the Areopagite Mark Edwards, Dimitrios Pallis, Georgios Steiris, 2022-02-25 This Handbook contains forty essays by an international team of experts on the antecedents the content and the reception of the Dionysian corpus a body of writings falsely ascribed to Dionysius the Areopagite a convert of St Paul but actually written about 500 AD The first section contains discussions of the genesis of the corpus its Christian antecedents and its Neoplatonic influences In the second section studies on the Syriac reception the relation of the Syriac to the original Greek and the editing of the Greek by John of Scythopolis are followed by contributions on the use of the corpus in such Byzantine authors as Maximus the Confessor John of Damascus Theodore the Studite Niketas Stethatos Gregory Palamas and Gemistus Pletho In the third section attention turns to the Western tradition represented first by the translators John Scotus Eriugena John Sarracenus and Robert Grosseteste and then by such readers as the Victorines the early Franciscans Albert the Great Aquinas Bonaventure Dante the English mystics Nicholas of Cusa and Marsilio Ficino The contributors to the final section survey the effect on Western readers of Lorenzo Valla's proof of the inauthenticity of the corpus and the subsequent exposure of its dependence on Proclus by Koch and Stiglmayr The authors studied in this section include Erasmus Luther and his followers Vladimir Lossky Hans Urs von Balthasar and Jacques Derrida as well as modern thinkers of the Greek Church Essays on Dionysius as a mystic and a political theologian conclude the volume

The Mystery and the World Maria Clara Bingemer, 2016-05-10 During the past century an enormous effervescence of events changed the sociopolitical configuration of the world The interpretation of these facts helped further deepen the crisis in which modern thought already found itself and it generated the uncertain and unstable environment in which we live today the so called postmodernity late modernity or hypermodernity In this context one of the most profound impacts is most certainly the one on religion During the twentieth century religion proved not to be banished from the human horizon as the masters of suspicion intended Known as the godless century the twentieth century saw also a resuscitation of the search for the sense of life and spirituality With the crisis of modern reason humankind turned toward consumerism and provisional and light practices The last century represents not only the height of the postmodernization process but also the rescue of the transcendent and absolute even if it is an absolute without face and identity It is in this scenario that religious experiences apparently exiled by modern rationality begin to occur and multiply again Mystical experiences will be then the basis for highlighting recurrent characteristics with universal import But they will show a different configuration than before One will be able to find them not in so called sacred spaces but in very secular ones not so much within institutions but at the borders or even outside them not configured by a specific tradition but in an interface that makes more than one tradition meet and dialogue

Pruning the Genealogical Tree Gian Balsamo, 1999 Based on the thesis that lineage and family succession are endemically exposed to spurious and collateral ramifications it engages genealogy as a construct whose architecture is best exemplified
