

- Post World War II, the world got divided into two power blocs dominated by two superpowers viz. the Soviet Union and the US.
The two superpowers were primarily engaged in an ideological war between the capitalist USA and the communist Soviet Union.
- The term "Cold" is used because there was no large-scale fighting directly between the two sides.

Note:

- The Cold War was between Allied countries (UK, France etc. who were led by the US) and Soviet Union.
- Soviet Union
  - The Soviet Union, officially known as the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR).
  - It is the world's first Communist state that was established in 1922.

Reasons of Cold War

During the World War Allied countries (US, UK and France) and Soviet Union fought together against the Axis powers (Nazi Germany, Japan, Austria). However, this wartime alliance could not work out after World War II, due to multiple factors.

Potsdam conference

- The Potsdam conference was held at Berlin in 1945 among US, UK and Soviet Union to discuss :
  - Immediate administration of defeated Germany.
  - Demarcation of boundary of Poland.
  - Occupation of Austria.
  - Role of the Soviet Union in Eastern Europe.
- Soviet Union wanted some portion of Poland (bordering Soviet Union) to be maintained as a buffer zone. However, the USA and UK didn't agree to this demand.
- Also, the USA did not inform the Soviet Union about the exact nature of the atomic bomb, dropped on Japan. This created suspicion in Soviet Union about the intentions of western countries, embittering of the alliance.
- This created suspicion in the Soviet leadership.

Truman's Doctrine

- Truman Doctrine was announced on March 12, 1947, by US President Harry S. Truman.
