The Complete Bordeaux Vintage Guide Neal Martin,2025-09-11 The Complete Bordeaux Vintage Guide 1870 2024 covers in depth over 150 years of vintages and is totally unique in its cultural scope For wine lovers and collectors this is the new indispensable guide updated throughout and including 2021-2024 vintages. This handbook not only explains what happened in a particular season but provides wider historical and social context. Every single year is accompanied by one event or milestone, one song or musical composition and one film that encapsulates the spirit of the time as well as the world into which the vintage was born. Wine writer Neal Martin offers a personal, witty take on the traditional wine handbook with notes on not just the growing seasons, harvests and wines themselves but cultural phenomena ranging from Sherlock Holmes through Casablanca to Harry Styles. Innovative, inspired and addictively dip-in-able, The Complete Bordeaux Vintage Guide is an essential addition to your bookshelf as well as your cellar. Word Drops Paul Anthony Jones, 2016-04 From aardvark to zenzizenzizencic, Word Drops collects a thousand obscure words and language facts in one fascinating chain of word associations. Did you know, for example, that scandal derives from the Latin for stumbling block and originally described a trap for a wild animal? In nineteenth-century slang, a wolf trap was a corrupt casino. Casino means little house in Italian, Roulette means little wheel in French. A wheeler is someone who attends auctions to bid on items merely to increase their sale price. Such links take readers on an unexpected journey through linguistic oddities. Inspired by the popular HaggardHawks Twitter account, Word Drops also uses an intriguing series of annotations to add background and historical context on everything from Anglo-Saxon cures for insanity to Samuel Pepys's cure for a hangover. This unique book will delight anyone who loves language, etymology and word games. Not for sale in the United Kingdom, Europe, Australia or Canada. Who Said That First? Max Cryer, 2011-10-03 Who first wrote absence makes the heart grow fonder, accidentally on purpose or no pain, no gain? Did you know that there is no evidence Queen Victoria said "We are not amused" or Marie Antoinette proclaimed "Let them eat cake" but iron curtain was in use for 40 years before Winston Churchill said it and we have P.G. Wodehouse to thank for straight from the horse's mouth. This witty and accessible compendium reveals the obscure origins of over 500 common phrases, dispelling myths and offering plenty of fascinating facts to delight the trivia holic in all of us. Is It True? Max Cryer, 2014-03-01 We can all remember the stories we were told as children: Santa Claus lives at the North Pole, St. Bernard dogs carry brandy to help lost climbers, Lady Godiva rode naked through Coventry. They were great stories and we believed them. But are they true? Max Cryer sets out to investigate the truth, or otherwise, of ideas and beliefs we may have always been told are true but which, on closer examination, may not be. For example, did Winston Churchill coin the term Iron Curtain? OK, is an American expression, right? Tulips come from Holland, don't they? Did Sarah Palin say "I can see Russia from my house"? The subjects covered in this highly entertaining book are diverse, ranging from politics, science and social history to language, music and the natural world. Max Cryer approaches each with an open mind, seeking to uncover the truth behind some of our most cherished beliefs. Be prepared for surprises. The Brown Duet Book Angela Diller, 1924 Handbook of American Sheet Music Harry Dichter, 1947 British Cinema Sheet Music Donald J.
